A Place in History
 Michael Herzfeld,2020-11-10 Michael Herzfeld describes what happens when a bureaucracy charged with historic conservation clashes with a local populace hostile to the state and suspicious of tourism Focusing on the Cretan town of Rethemnos once a center of learning under Venetian rule and later inhabited by the Turks he examines major questions confronting conservators and citizens as they negotiate the ownership of history Who defines the past To whom does the past belong What is traditional and how is this determined Exploring the meanings of the built environment for Rethemnos s inhabitants Herzfeld finds that their interest in it has more to do with personal histories and the immediate social context than with the formal history that attracts the conservators He also investigates the inhabitants social practices from the standpoints of household and kin group political association neighborhood gender ideology and the effects of these on attitudes toward home ownership In the face of modernity where tradition is an object of both reverence and commercialism Rethemnos emerges as an important ethnographic window onto the ambiguous cultural fortunes of Greece

Treasure Hunt Rosemond Opare-Kumi,2021-02-11 Treasure Hunt is a life time inspirational call for believers to give their all to hunt the eternal TREASURE It is this hunt that promises in return a hundred fold blessing in this life and guarantees eternal life

Since creation responses to God's love have sent men and women on diverse escapades A clear demonstration of their love for Jesus Christ has compelled some of them on journeys marked by untold hardships and persecution until their death Many of these heroes are unsung and their names may not appear anywhere Treasure Hunt is therefore a collection of life stories in brief of randomly selected ancient and modern Treasure Hunters who defied all odds to demonstrate their love for Jesus Christ in largely uncharted territories Some were martyred while others abandoned their families for years on end and sometimes lost their lives in the process In like manner Jesus Christ left His residence in heaven to come down in order to reconcile the world back to God That is the price He paid in order to secure salvation for all mankind who choose to believe in Him He is the Treasure believers seek against all odds for He promises to reward labors of love These Treasure hunters demonstrate that indeed the Kingdom of God is like a precious treasure hidden in a field When a man finds it he hides it and then in his joy goes and sells all he has and buys that field Many are selling material possessions as their opportunity cost in buying the Treasure in order to also win the prize What are you forgoing in order to find this Treasure and make it accessible to others Choose to be a Treasure Hunter for your labor of love will be rewarded by Jesus Christ Woman! Wowman!
