International Handbook of Financial Literacy Carmela Aprea, Eveline Wuttke, Klaus Breuer, Noi Keng Koh, Peter Davies, Bettina Greimel-Fuhrmann, Jane S. Lopus, 2016-03-24 This Handbook presents in depth research conducted on a myriad of issues within the field of financial literacy Split into six sections it starts by presenting prevalent conceptions of financial literacy before covering financial literacy in the policy context the state and development of financial literacy within different countries issues of assessment and evaluation of financial literacy approaches to teaching financial literacy and teacher training and teacher education in financial literacy In doing so it provides precise definitions of the construct of financial literacy and elaborates on the state and recent developments of financial literacy around the world to show ways of measuring and fostering financial literacy and to give hints towards necessary and successful teacher trainings The book also embraces the diversity in the field by revealing contrasting and conflicting views that cannot be bridged while at the same time making a contribution by re joining existing materials in one volume which can be used in academic discourse in research workshops in university lectures and in the definition of program initiatives within the wider field of financial literacy It allows for a landscape of financial literacy to be depicted which would foster the implementation of learning opportunities for human beings for sake of well being within financial living conditions The Handbook is useful to academics and students of the topic professionals in the sector of investment and banking and for every person responsible for managing his or her financial affairs in everyday life

Boosting growth to end hunger by 2025: The role of social protection Wouterse, Fleur Stephanie,Taffesse, Alemayehu Seyoum,2018-10-23 Social protection programs public or private initiatives that aid the poor and protect the vulnerable against livelihood risks can effectively be used to assist those trapped or at the risk of being trapped in chronic poverty These programs aim to address chronic poverty through redistribution and protect vulnerable households from falling below the poverty line Although investments in social protection programs are often motivated by equity concerns they can also contribute to economic growth by for example encouraging savings creating community assets and addressing market imperfections Despite their potential and proliferation not enough is known about social protection programs in Africa The 2017 2018 Annual Trends and Outlook Report ATOR reduces this knowledge gap by focusing on the potential of such programs on the continent and the corresponding opportunities and challenges The chapters of the Report highlight the benefits of these programs not only to their direct recipients but also others in the community through spillover effects They also underscore the importance of appropriate design and sustainability to fully realize the potential of social protection programs
