Review of Public Personnel Administration, 1990 Include abstracts Administrative Law Judge Decisions Report United States. Federal Labor Relations Authority, 1995 On the Other Side of the Bars Dan M. Reynolds, 2012-09 When we got there we saw helicopters and smoke coming from the burning buildings We saw a large number of inmates many clinging to a fence We witnessed National Guard troops inside the prison with their weapons marching in step to their posts We saw guardsmen on top of the walls and on top of buildings I never thought that I would end up working there much less as the warden some eighteen years later Author Dan Reynolds has written an enthralling account of a decades long career in Oklahoma corrections In On the Other Side of the Bars he spills his heart about everything from how it felt to live through his first execution as a warden after only ninety days on the job to the joyfully uplifting moments of seeing the wisdom of experience bear fruit For those considering entering a career in corrections he also details the most critical components of a safe and secure prison for staff to work in and inmates to live in Learn how it feels to have to deal head on with a riot and discover why the author is mentioned in a John Grisham book Administrative Law Judge Decisions Reports United States. Federal Labor Relations Authority,1995 Reform in the Making Ann Chih Lin,2002-06-10 Is it time to give up on rehabilitating criminals Record numbers of Americans are going to prison and most of them will eventually return to society with a high chance of becoming repeat offenders But a decision to abandon rehabilitation programs now would be premature warns Ann Chih Lin who finds that little attention has been given to how these programs are actually implemented and why they tend to fail In Reform in the Making she not only supplies much needed information on the process of program implementation but she also considers its social context the daily realities faced by prison staff and inmates By offering an in depth look at common rehabilitation programs currently in operation education job training and drug treatment and examining how they are used or misused Lin offers a practical approach to understanding their high failure rate and how the situation could be improved Based on extensive observation and over 350 interviews with staff and prisoners in five medium security male prisons the book contrasts successfully implemented programs with subverted abandoned or neglected programs those which staff reject or which do not teach prisoners anything useful Lin explains that staff and prisoners have little patience with programs aimed at long range goals when they must face the ongoing immediate challenge of surviving prison life Finding incentives to make both sides participate fully in rehabilitation is among the book s many contributions to improving prison policy The US Prisons - Retribution to Rehabilitation - Missing Soul Rana Ik-Ram,2025-03-05 The primary aim of this book is to expose what is happening behind the US prison walls The daily life of inmates correctional staff is researched who is controlling benefitting the prisons financial cost of 182 billion annually How Drug Mafia is unbridled even in high security prisons These realities need to be known to all the concerned policymakers Now every American has one of his her close relatives behind the bar The main vision of our research is to initiate more rehabilitative measures in the criminal justice system to reduce violence crimes in society It tells the real story of the US prison system and its inmates lives which are kept hidden from people Introduction to Corrections Robert D. Federal Labor Relations Authority,1990 Through the Rank Marie Ford,2017-10-27 I chose to write about my experiences because I want peoplethe general public we protect on a daily basis and whose safety and security we ensure by supervising offenders to know what we experience daily mentally and physically. Once you report for duty you don't know what can happen from one minute to the next. Things can happen so quickly you could be assaulted or severely injured or you could lose your life. There are some made for television movies that are not real. However, it is entertainment. Haole Boy Lanakila Michael Achong, 2008-11. When Michael Wester was just three years old, his mother punched him in the face and broke his nose. When he was five years old, three of his front teeth were knocked out. He spent the first ten years of his life learning how to survive an abusive and drugged-out mother. But Michael overcame the pain, fear, and hatred of those first years. Haole Boy is his personal story of how he fulfilled his dreams and now enjoys a good life. Author Lanakila Michael Achong reveals how he survived his brutal childhood and experienced unconditional love and acceptance at the age of eighteen when he was adopted by a multicultural family. He tells of his interest in sports, his graduation from high school, his career in law enforcement, and his immersion in the Hawaiian culture. Inspired to tell his story after having a child of his own, Achong delivers an emotional story that reveals the strength of the human spirit. It is a story about achieving self-worth and the ability to love and accept love in return. With photos included, Haole Boy demonstrates the irrefutable strength of love and how it can change someone's life forever. Corrections United States. National Advisory Commission on Criminal Justice Standards and Goals, 1973. The Commission recommends specific standards in pursuit of the achievement of six major goals for the improvement of the American correctional system. The American correctional system today appears to offer minimum protection for the public and maximum harm to the offender. The National Advisory Commission on Criminal Justice Standards and Goals in its report on corrections has proposed about 140 standards designed to change that situation. The standards spell out in detail where, why, how, and what improvements can and should be made in the corrections segment of the criminal justice system. This report is a reference work for the correctional professional as well as for the interested layman. Among its goals, the commission urges that disparities in sentencing be removed and justice in corrections be upheld by measures guaranteeing offenders' rights during and after incarceration. The scope of corrections can and should be narrowed by diverting many juveniles and sociomedical cases, alcoholics, drug addicts, prostitutes, and the mentally disturbed to noncorrectional treatment programs and by decriminalizing certain minor offenses such as public drunkenness and vagrancy. Another goal states that probation should become the standard criminal sentence, retaining confinement chiefly for dangerous offenders and releasing a majority of offenders to improved and extended community-based programs. Corrections should undergo a planned integration into the total criminal justice system with each state unifying all correctional functions and programs for adults and juveniles within its executive branch.
