Boyd, Christian Edwardes, 2019-03-15 This book presents distinct perspectives from both geographically oriented creative practices and geographers working with arts based processes In doing so it fills a significant gap in the already sizeable body of non representational discourse by bringing together images and reflections on performances art practice theatre dance and sound production alongside theoretical contributions and examples of creative writing It considers how contemporary art making is being shaped by spatial enquiry and how geographical research has been influenced by artistic practice It provides a clear and concise overview of the principles of non representational theory for researchers and practitioners in the creative arts and across its four sections demonstrates the potential for non representational theory to bring cultural geography and contemporary art closer than ever before Big Data: Concepts, Methodologies, Tools, and Applications Management Association, Information Resources, 2016-04-20 The digital age has presented an exponential growth in the amount of data available to individuals looking to draw conclusions based on given or collected information across industries Challenges associated with the analysis security sharing storage and visualization of large and complex data sets continue to plague data scientists and analysts alike as traditional data processing applications struggle to adequately manage big data Big Data Concepts Methodologies Tools and Applications is a multi volume compendium of research based perspectives and solutions within the realm of large scale and complex data sets Taking a multidisciplinary approach this publication presents exhaustive coverage of crucial topics in the field of big data including diverse applications storage solutions analysis techniques and methods for searching and transferring large data sets in addition to security issues Emphasizing essential research in the field of data science this publication is an ideal reference source for data analysts IT professionals researchers and academics Creativity and Mental Imagery Massimiliano Palmiero, Laura

Piccardi, Raffaella Nori, Liana Palermo, Carola Salvi, Cecilia Guariglia, 2016-10-18 Creativity is increasingly attracting attention of scientific community given its role in different aspects of human life So far we have only began to understand its complexity and how it correlates with other cognitive processes A further understanding of its key processes is essential to better implement applications of creativity tools to daily life Therefore it is the aim of this Research Topics to further elucidate how creativity can be measured and its components such as mental imagery are determined Facing Forward

Sajitha Bashir, Marlaine Lockheed, Elizabeth Ninan, Jee-Peng Tan, 2018-09-20 Facing Forward lays out a range of policy and implementation actions that are needed for countries in Sub Saharan Africa to meet the challenge of improving learning while expanding access and completion of basic education for all The book underscores the importance of aligning the education system to be relentlessly focused on learning outcomes and to ensuring that all children have access to good schools good learning materials and good teachers It is unique in characterizing countries according to the challenges they faced in the 1990s and the educational progress they have made over the past 25 years allowing countries in the region to learn from each other The authors review the global literature and add to it by their extensive new analyses of multiple datasets from more than three dozen countries in the region they integrate findings about what affects children s learning their access to schooling and progress through basic education The book draws lessons from the region and for the region about what works and what is needed to better implement what is known to have worked The book examines four areas to help countries better align their systems to improve learning 1 completing the unfinished agenda of reaching universal basic education with quality 2 ensuring effective management and support of teachers 3 targeting spending priorities and budget processes on improving quality and 4 closing the institutional capacity gap It concludes with an assessment of how future educational progress may be affected by projected fertility rates and economic growth Meeting the Challenges to Measurement in an Era of Accountability

Henry Braun, 2016-01-29 Under pressure and support from the federal government states have increasingly turned to indicators based on student test scores to evaluate teachers and schools as well as students themselves The focus thus far has been on test scores in those subject areas where there is a sequence of consecutive tests such as in mathematics or English language arts with a focus on grades 4 8 Teachers in these subject areas however constitute less than thirty percent of the teacher workforce in a district Comparatively little has been written about the measurement of achievement in the other grades and subjects This volume seeks to remedy this imbalance by focusing on the assessment of student achievement in a broad range of grade levels and subject areas with particular attention to their use in the evaluation of teachers and schools in all It addresses traditional end of course tests as well as alternative measures such as portfolios exhibitions and student learning objectives In each case issues related to design and development psychometric considerations and validity challenges are covered from both a generic and a content specific perspective The NCME Applications of Educational Measurement and Assessment series includes edited volumes designed to inform research based applications of educational measurement and assessment Edited by leading experts these books are comprehensive and practical resources on the latest developments in the field The Open Access version of this book available at <http://www.taylorfrancis.com> has been made available under a Creative Commons Attribution Non Commercial No Derivatives 4.0 license

The impact of art therapy on mental health and well-being Helena José,Joao Apostolo,Luciano Vitorino,Luis Manuel Mota de Sousa,Martina Giusti,2023-12-22 In 2019 the WHO came out with a scoping review related to the evidence on the role of the arts in improving health and well being In the last year in fact literature has recognized the direct and indirect benefits of art in the prevention and promotion of mental and physical health and in the management and treatment of disease Although some countries have made progress in developing policies that make use of the arts to support health and well being many have not yet addressed the opportunities that exist for using the arts to support health and for others policy activities have been time limited Nonetheless the relationship between art and health has existed since the birth of medicine itself and has strongly influenced its history and its evolution Art therapy is the main expression of art in health care The integration of art in traditional health assistance paths sustains the need to have a holistic approach to health wellness and well being both of patients and other stakeholders including caregivers and healthcare professionals Currently the main area of art therapy application is mental health with especially regards to disability both in developmental age and in elderly and both to cognitive and physical impairment and dementia However it is important to remark that mental health does not only refer to mental illness but also to people's emotional psychological and social well being These last cases have particularly worsened with the long lockdown periods due to the COVID 19 pandemic
