

The Crucible Summary Act I

1. What did Abigail and Betty do in the forest that upsets Parris?

Abigail drinks rooster blood in attempt to summon spirits to kill Elizabeth Proctor.

2. Why did Mrs. Putnam send Ruth to Tituba?

Each of Putnam's seven children passed away a day after birth. She sent Ruth to Tituba to speak with the spirits of her deceased children to identify the murderer because she was convinced that someone had used witchcraft to murder her children.

3. How does Abigail feel about John Proctor? How does Proctor feel about Abigail?

Despite John's insistence that she forget about their previous affair and move on with her life, Abigail expresses her intense feelings for him. John is adamant about sticking with Elizabeth and regrets his adultery, despite the possibility that he still has feelings for Abigail.

4. Why does Tituba start to make accusations against other women in Salem?

She accuses other people because she wants people to think that there are more witches and not just her.

5. With a partner, discuss how the behavior of Rebecca Nurse and John Proctor is different from that of the other characters. What reasons do other characters have for lying and saying that there is witchcraft in Salem?

My partner and I both concur that Rebecca and John maintain their convictions. For fear of being killed, characters in Salem lie about witchcraft.
