Cut And Paste Rainforest Activity:

Environmental Learning Mark Rickinson, Cecilia Lundholm, Nick Hopwood, 2009-10-06 Environmental education and education for sustainable development have become features of many countries formal education systems To date however there have been few attempts to explore what such learning looks and feels like from the perspective of the learners Based on in depth empirical studies in school and university classrooms this book presents rich insights into the complexities and dynamics of students environmental learning The authors show how careful analysis of students environmental learning experiences can provide powerful pointers for future practice policy and research Environmental Learning will be a key resource for educators teacher educators decision makers and researchers involved in education and sustainable development

Global Black Narratives for the Classroom: Africa, the Americas and the Caribbean BLAM UK, 2023-12-06 Rather than reserving the teaching of Black history to Black history month Black narratives deserve to be seen and integrated into every aspect of the school curriculum A unique yet practical resource Global Black Narratives for the Classroom addresses this issue by providing primary teachers with a global outline of Black history culture and life within the framework of the UK s National Curriculum Each topic explored in this essential book provides teachers and teaching assistants with historical geographic and cultural context to build confidence when planning and teaching Full lesson plans and printable worksheets are incorporated into each topic alongside tips to build future lessons in line with the themes explored Volume II of this book explores the following parts Part 1 guides teachers through planning and delivering lessons focused on Africa Pupils will benefit from developing a diverse and accurate understanding of the changing nature of Africa throughout history linking the continent s social history with its geographical features Part 2 The Caribbean builds upon the lesson plans of Part 1 to further highlight the interconnectedness of diaspora cultures in influencing the musical visual and religious practices of the Caribbean and Central America Part 3 begins by addressing the incorrect assumption that the history of Black people in the Americas begins and ends with plantation slavery Instead this section proposes a range of in depth lesson plans on the diverse histories cultures and experiences of Black people within the United States Created by BLAM UK this highly informative yet practical resource is an essential read for any teacher teaching assistant or senior leader who wishes to diversify their curriculum and address issues of Black representation within their school It is published in two practical and comprehensive volumes Volume 1 covers Britain and Europe whilst Volume 2 includes Africa the Americas and the Caribbean Each volume can be used individually for teaching but when used together they provide a truly global perspective on black history and culture
