Tucker's Deadline Robin Binckes,2014-09-19 This is the true story of Irving Tucker who married an English girl Yvonne and left South Africa in 1976 to farm sheep on the Welsh border growing their own organic vegetables and living a healthy life style They returned to South Africa every year on holiday The couple was childless The book deals with Irving s complex personality and his love of practical jokes and traces the relationship between him and the writer over the period 1961 2011 The death of Yvonne in 2010 is the primary reason why Irving announces to his friends that he is going to kill himself this despite the fact that he is healthy relatively young and has recently sold a piece of art for over 1 million For two years following Yvonne s death his friends attempt to dissuade him from committing suicide never sure whether it is a cry for help an attempt to get attention another practical joke or a serious threat He sponsors an elephant collaring in the bush and invites a group of friends to join him for this last African adventure Around the campfire at night he and his friends openly discuss his plans The polarized reactions of Tucker s confidants range from vehement denial to vehement support as he advises them that his suicide date is rapidly approaching In January 2011 he returns home to England his deadline the end of

February Irving Tucker is a complex character with great attributes and glaring faults This is a story of love friendship and caring of laughter fun sadness and tragedy It is the story of a man determined to leave this world at a time of his choosing

Going to the Mountain Ndaba Mandela, 2018-06-28 You empower yourself and then you reach out to others Uplifting life lessons from one of the greatest leaders the world has ever known through the eyes of the grandson whose life he changed forever In his book Going to the Mountain Ndaba Mandela shares the story of his coming of age alongside South Africa's rebirth It is a remarkable journey and one that took him from the violent segregated Soweto ghettos to his grandfather's presidential home As a young boy Ndaba was constantly shunted from place to place But at eleven years old he was unexpectedly invited to live with his grandfather Nelson Mandela even though he had met him only once before during a prison visit And slowly they built a relationship that would affect both of them profoundly Ndaba's teenage years were complicated but as he approached his twenty first birthday Mandela decided that Ndaba was finally ready to go to the mountain a test of courage during which you become a man At the end of this gruelling ritual journey the elders of the Mandelas tribe gathered and Ndaba's grandfather was there as ever to share his greatest life lessons From Nelson Mandela Ndaba learned the spirit of endurance the triumph of forgiveness the power of resistance and the beauty of reconciliation And as Mandela grew older Ndaba had the chance to repay his grandfather's love and support by demonstrating the ways in which he'd understood all that he had taught him Intimate and inspirational Going to the Mountain is a powerful reminder of how one person can impact profoundly on another and a testament to the awesome power within us to change ourselves and our world
