Art Theft and the Case of the Stolen Turners Sandy Nairne, 2011-09-15 In 1994 two important paintings by J M W Turner then valued at twenty four million pounds were stolen from a German public gallery while on loan from Tate Britain. In this vivid personal account Sandy Nairne who was then Director of Programmes at the Tate and became centrally involved in the pursuit of the paintings and the negotiations for their return retells this complex 8 year cloak and dagger story which finally concluded in 2002 with the pictures returning to public display at the Tate. In addition to this thrilling narrative Nairne unravels stories of other high value art thefts puzzling what motivates a thief to steal a well known work of art that cannot be sold even on the black market. Nairne also examines the role of art theft within the larger underworld of international looting and illicit deals among art and antique collectors. The art heist of course is a popular theme of crime novels and films and Nairne considers these depictions as well investigating the imaginative construction of the art thief the specialist detective and the mysterious collector. Art Theft and the Case of the Stolen Turners is a compelling real life detective story that will keep both art and mystery lovers eagerly turning pages.

The Woman Who Stole Vermeer Anthony M. Amore, 2020-11-10 The extraordinary life and crimes of heiress turned revolutionary Rose Dugdale who in 1974 became the only woman to pull off a major art heist. In the world of crime there exists an unusual commonality between those who steal art and those who repeatedly kill they are almost exclusively male. But as with all things there is always an outlier someone who bucks the trend defying the reliable profiles and leaving investigators and researchers scratching their heads. In the history of major art heists that outlier is Rose Dugdale Dugdale's life is singularly notorious Born into extreme wealth she abandoned her life as an Oxford trained PhD and heiress to join the cause of Irish Republicanism While on the surface she appears to be the British version of Patricia Hearst she is anything but Dugdale ran head first towards the action spearheading the first aerial terrorist attack in British history and pulling off the biggest art theft of her time In 1974 she led a gang into the opulent Russborough House in Ireland and made off with millions in prized paintings including works by Goya Gainsborough and Rubens as well as Lady Writing a Letter with her Maid by the mysterious master Johannes Vermeer Dugdale thus became to this day the only woman to pull off a major art heist And as Anthony Amore explores in The Woman Who Stole Vermeer it's likely that this was not her only such heist The Woman Who Stole Vermeer is Rose Dugdale's story from her idyllic upbringing in Devonshire and her presentation to Elizabeth II as a debutante to her university years and her eventual radical lifestyle Her life of crime and activism is at turns unbelievable and awe inspiring and sure to engross readers
