The Duke Of Deception By Geoffrey Wolff:

Duke of Deception Geoffrey Wolff, 2011-02-16 Duke Wolff was a flawless specimen of the American clubman a product of Yale and the OSS a one time fighter pilot turned aviation engineer Duke Wolff was a failure who flunked out of a series of undistinguished schools was passed up for military service and supported himself with desperately improvised scams exploiting employers wives and finally his own son In The Duke of Deception Geoffrey Wolff unravels the enigma of this Gatsbyesque figure a bad man who somehow was also a very good father an inveterate liar who falsified everything but love

The Duke of Deception Geoffrey Wolff, 1979 New York Magazine, 1979-09-03 New York magazine was born in 1968 after a run as an insert of the New York Herald Tribune and quickly made a place for itself as the trusted resource for readers across the country With award winning writing and photography covering everything from politics and food to theater and fashion the magazine's consistent mission has been to reflect back to its audience the energy and excitement of the city itself while celebrating New York as both a place and an idea

Stories of Resilience in Childhood Daniel D. Challener, 2019-10-01 What helps a child overcome extraordinary obstacles Why do some children surmount many difficulties and go on to live fulfilling lives while other children who face similar difficulties end up living desperate sad lives What helps children beat the odds What builds resilience in children These are critically important questions yet for too long social scientists doctors psychologists and teachers have studied children who failed and tried to figure out what caused the failure Only relatively recently have they begun to focus on what creates success Originally published in 1997 this book is an effort to understand better what contributes to a child's success and resilience The source of information will be autobiographies of childhoods autobiographical stories written by adults remembering their difficult childhoods This is not a research study or case study rather it is an attempt to read and listen to five stories about resilient children and see what they can tell us about supporting children and building resilience

Take This Man Brando Skyhorse, 2014-06-03 Named one of Kirkus Reviews Best Nonfiction Books of 2014 One of NBC News's 10 Best Latino Books of 2014 A West Coast version of Augusten Burroughs's Running With Scissors A funny shocking generous hearted book Entertainment Weekly about a boy his five stepfathers and the mother who was determined to give her son everything but the truth When he was three years old Brando Kelly Ulloa was abandoned by his immigrant father His mother Maria dreaming of a more exciting life saw no reason for her son to live as a Mexican American just because he was born one With the help of Maria's ruthless imagination and a hastily penned jailhouse correspondence the life of Brando Skyhorse the Native American son of an incarcerated political activist was about to begin Through a series of letters to Paul Skyhorse Johnson a stranger in prison for armed robbery Maria reinvents herself and her young son as American Indians in the colorful Mexican American neighborhood of Echo Park California where Brando and his mother live with his acerbic grandmother and a rotating cast of surrogate fathers It will be thirty years before Brando begins to untangle the truth when a surprise discovery leads him to his biological father at last

From this PEN Hemingway Award winning novelist comes an extraordinary literary memoir capturing a mother son story unlike any other and a boy's single minded search for a father wherever he can find one This Is the Story of a Happy Marriage Ann Patchett, 2013-11-07 This Is the Story of a Happy Marriage is an irresistible blend of literature and memoir revealing the big experiences and little moments that shaped Ann Patchett as a daughter wife friend and writer Here Ann Patchett shares entertaining and moving stories about her tumultuous childhood her painful early divorce the excitement of selling her first book driving a Winnebago from Montana to Yellowstone Park her joyous discovery of opera scaling a six foot wall in order to join the Los Angeles Police Department the gradual loss of her beloved grandmother starting her own bookshop in Nashville her love for her very special dog and of course her eventual happy marriage This Is the Story of a Happy Marriage is a memoir both wide ranging and deeply personal overflowing with close observation and emotional wisdom told with wit honesty and irresistible warmth Cultural Criticism, 1969-1990 Heinz Dietrich Fischer, Erika J. Fischer, 1992 No detailed description available for Cultural Criticism 1969 1990 Bureau of Missing Persons Roger J. Porter, 2011-05-06 A devoted reader of autobiographies and memoirs Roger J Porter has observed in recent years a surprising number of memoirs by adult children whose fathers have led secret lives Some of the fathers had second families some had secret religious lives others have been criminals liars or con men Struck by the intensely human drama of secrecy and deception played out for all to see Porter explores the phenomenon in great depth In Bureau of Missing Persons he examines a large number of these works eighteen in all placing them in a wide literary and cultural context and considering the ethical quandaries writers face when they reveal secrets so long and closely held Among the books Porter treats are Paul Auster's The Invention of Solitude Alison Bechdel's graphic memoir Fun Home Essie Mae Washington Williams's Dear Senator on her father Strom Thurmond Bliss Broyard's One Drop Mary Gordon's The Shadow Man and Geoffrey Wolff's The Duke of Deception He also discusses Nathaniel Kahn's documentary film My Architect These narratives inevitably look inward to the writer as well as outward to the parent The autobiographical children are compelled if not consumed by a desire to know They become detectives piecing together clues to fill memory voids assembling material and archival evidence public and private documents letters photographs and iconic physical objects to track down the parent Refiguring the Map of Sorrow Mark Christopher Allister, 2001 Allister English St Olaf College examines works by six authors which fuse autobiography literary nonfiction and environmental literature into a distinct form of grief narrative Each of these authors begins in depression that shadows grief each comes to put an end to depression to move through mourning by turning observations and stories of the external world into a narrative that heals The six works featured are Sue Hubbell's A Country Year Terry Tempest Williams' Refuge Bill Barich's Laughing in the Hills William Least Heat Moons' Blue Highways Peter Matthiessen's The Snow Leopard and Gretel Ehrlich's The Solace of Open Spaces Annotation copyrighted by Book News Inc Portland OR Thematic Guide to Popular Nonfiction Lynda G. Adamson, 2006-01-30 Popular nonfiction is widely read and is increasingly prominent in the curriculum This guide helps students teachers and librarians identify popular works of nonfiction related to particular themes Included are alphabetically arranged entries on 50 themes such as Animals Exploration Genocide Immigrants Poverty and Race Relations Each entry begins with a definition and discussion of the theme followed by critical summaries of three or four works of nonfiction The entries conclude with lists of additional nonfiction for further reading and the Guide closes with lists of additional themes and related works along with a bibliography of works on popular nonfiction

Intimate Lies and the Law Jill Elaine Hasday,2019 This is the first book that systematically examines deception in sexual marital and familial relationships and uncovers the hidden body of law that shields intimate deceivers from legal consequences It argues that entering an intimate relationship or being duped into one should not mean losing the law s protection from deceit

The Making of Princeton University James Axtell,2021-03-09 In 1902 Professor Woodrow Wilson took the helm of Princeton University

then a small denominational college with few academic pretensions But Wilson had a blueprint for remaking the too cozy college into an intellectual powerhouse The Making of Princeton University tells for the first time the story of how the University adapted and updated Wilson s vision to transform itself into the prestigious institution it is today James Axtell brings the methods and insights from his extensive work in ethnohistory to the collegiate realm focusing especially on one of Princeton s most distinguished features its unrivaled reputation for undergraduate education Addressing admissions the curriculum extracurricular activities and the changing landscape of student culture the book devotes four full chapters to undergraduate life inside and outside the classroom The book is a livelywarts and all rendering of Princeton s rise addressing such themes as discriminatory admission policies the academic underperformance of many varsity athletes and the controversial bicker system through which students have been selected for the University s private eating clubs Written in a delightful and elegant style The Making of Princeton University offers a detailed picture of how the University has dealt with these issues to secure a distinguished position in both higher education and American society For anyone interested in or associated with Princeton past or present this is a book to savor

Contemporary Literary Criticism Daniel G.

Marowski,1986-12 Entries include critical commentary brief biographical information a portrait when available a list of principal works and may also include a further reading section The Graphic Lives of Fathers Mihaela Precup,2020-02-21 This book explores the representation of fatherhood in contemporary North American autobiographical comics that depict paternal conduct from the post war period up to the present It offers equal space to autobiographical comics penned by daughters who represent their fathers complicated and often disappointing behavior and to works by male cartoonists who depict and usually celebrate their own experiences as fathers This book asks questions about how the desire to forgive or be forgiven can compromise the authors ethics or dictate style considers the ownership of life stories whose subjects cannot or do not agree to be represented and investigates the pervasive and complicated effects of dominant masculinities By close reading these cartoonists complex strategies of self representation this volume also places photography and archival work alongside the problematic legacy of self deprecation carried on from underground comics and shows how the vocabulary of graphic narration can work with other media and at the intersection of various genres and modes to produce a valuable scrutiny of contemporary norms of fatherhood
