The Fall By Simon Mawer:

The Fall Simon Mawer, 2018-08-23 Rob and Jamie are great friends from childhood They have grown up together and become top climbers but have since become estranged Rob is nevertheless amazed and grief stricken when he hears of Jamie's death after a fall on a relatively easy Welsh rockface The past though hides the secret clues behind the tragedy Layer by layer Simon Mawer peels back what happened going not only into the friends' childhoods but that of their parents who were also intimate And there is no escaping that past vividly imagined scenes in the London of the Blitz reveal how through two generations Rob and Jamie and their respective parents have been addicted to desire and the heady dangers of climbing Brilliantly structured as we move from past to present and back again this novel will make Simon Mawer's literary reputation

The Fall Simon Mawer, 2004-02-09 Simon Mawer is increasingly recognized as a world class novelist Christian Science Monitor whose fiction appeals to readers of Ian McEwan Peter Carey A S Byatt Michael Ondaatje et al A compulsively readable love story that's sure to be popular with reading groups Hardcover ISBN 0 316 09780 2 Reading as if for Life David Dickinson, 2025-01-01 Creaking open the pages of a heavy hardback or bending the spine of a poetry book over your knee on the train squinting over curled up pages by the light of a candle or scribbling notes in the margins in the corner of a sprawling library There are many who read as if for life many for whom as David Dickinson explores reading does not just feed the mind but also the soul Reading as if for Life takes us beyond the spirituality of sacred texts and into the spiritual possibilities of secular literature the opportunity to find or empty oneself the chance to engage in silent conversation with an absent other the appreciation of beauty and art the possibility of enlightenment From Augustine of Hippo to Thomas Hardy Iris Murdoch the poetry of R S Thomas Duffy and Donne and many other literary works David Dickinson explores how writers throughout the centuries have understood and experienced their own spirituality of reading For Dickinson these myriad journeys all bring us closer to an encounter with God dreaming ourselves into a world beyond This book invites its readers to see reading as a valuable spiritual exercise

Of Spaces and Ideas Petr Chalupský, Tereza Topolovská, 2024-11-01 This monograph provides a deeper insight into the work of two contemporary British novelists Jim Crace and Simon Mawer with a particular emphasis on their spatial sensibility as one of the defining elements of their poetics Drawing on a range of literary theoretical approaches to space the study analyses selected novels by the two writers to demonstrate the ways in which they render space and place and above all the ways in which their spatial representations allow them to express the key ideas behind their stories namely those of identity history and the relationship between an individual and the environment in which they live

Behind the Glass Michael Lambek, 2022-10-03 The Villa Tugendhat designed by Mies van der Rohe in 1928 is an icon of architectural modernism and a UNESCO World Heritage site Behind the Glass tells the true story of the large family connected to it who rose to prominence through industrial textile manufacturing The book traces the transformations in the life of the family from their roots in a Jewish ghetto to part of the wealthy bourgeoisie in the Austro-Hungarian Empire to adaptation in interwar independent Czechoslovakia and flight in the face of Nazi invasion Michael Lambek examines the generation born in the first decade of the twentieth century especially Grete Tugendhat Lambek's maternal grandmother who commissioned inhabited championed and relinquished the distinctive modern house An exploration of life in and surrounding the Villa Tugendhat offers a factual portrait that runs counter to the fictional one portrayed in Simon Mawer's The Glass Room The book also provides unpublished correspondence between Martin Heidegger and Ernst Tugendhat Grete's son as well as a description of the impact of a 2017 family reunion Behind the Glass reflects on the meaning of a family and suggests that it is more than a nuclear household a family reproduces itself over generations a product of how it represents itself and is represented by others

2003 American Alpine Journal , Published annually since 1929 the American Alpine Journal is internationally renowned as the finest of its kind the world's journal of record for documenting big new routes and remote mountain exploration This is the reference for anyone planning anything new in the mountains or venturing into remote ranges This book contains nearly 200 pages of exciting stories about the most important climbs of the year as told by the climbers themselves and about 300 photographs many with route overlays and 20 locator maps In continuing celebration of the American Alpine Club's centennial The Economist ,2009 365 ,2003 Cat Zero Jennifer L. Rohn, The Literary Review ,2012 The Publishers Weekly ,2002 Kissing Cousins Frances Bartkowski,2008-09-18 Since DNA has replaced blood as the medium through which we establish kinship how do we determine with whom we are kin Who counts among those we care for The distinction between these categories is constantly in flux How do we come to decide those we may kiss and those we may kill Focusing on narratives of kinship as they are defined in contemporary film literature and news media Frances Bartkowski discusses the impact of stories of origin on our regard for nonhuman species She locates the role of totems and taboos in forming and re-forming kinship categories groupings that enable us to tie the personal to the social and explores the bestiary among the oldest of literary forms The bestiary is the realm in which we allegorize the place of humans and other species a menagerie encompassing animals we know as well as human animal chimeras and other beings that challenge the natural order of the world Yet advances in reproductive technologies the mapping of genomes and the study of primates continually destabilize these categories and recast the dynamic between the natural and the cultural Bartkowski highlights the arbitrariness of traditional kinship arrangements and asks us to rethink our notions of empathy and ethics She shows how current dialogues concerning ethics and desire determine contemporary attitudes toward issues of care and suggests a new framework for negotiating connection and conflict Make-Believe David Dickinson,2020-01-01 I will tell you a story that will make you believe in God No story can guarantee being able to do this Yet novelists can tell stories that make us think about what we believe about God and why Despite repeated predictions of the death of the novel thousands of works of fiction are published and read in Britain each year Although Western society is less religiously observant than it was many 21st century novelists persist in pursuing theological religious and spiritual themes Make Believe seeks to explain why With chapters offering analyses of novels from several genres so called literary fiction historical fiction science fiction fantasy and dystopia David Dickinson discusses a wide spectrum of novelists Both those who are avowedly atheistic and those who have a vested interest in perpetuating biblical stories feature Well known writers such as Rushdie McEwan McCarthy and Martell rub shoulders with some you may be meeting for the first time Appealing to literature students and people who simply enjoy reading whether Christian or not this study of God in novels invites us to open our minds and allow aspects of our culture to shape our understanding of God and to change our ways of talking about the divine

Climbing ,2004 Trapeze Simon Mawer,2012-05-01 A propulsive novel of World War II espionage by the author of New York Times best seller The Glass Room Barely out of school and doing her bit for the British war effort Marian Sutro has one quality that makes her stand out she is a native French speaker It is this that attracts the attention of the SOE the Special Operations Executive which trains agents to operate in occupied Europe Drawn into this strange secret world at the age of nineteen she finds herself undergoing commando training attending a school for spies and ultimately one autumn night parachuting into France from an RAF bomber to join the WORDSMITH resistance network But there s more to Marian s mission than meets the eye of her SOE controllers her mission has been hijacked by another secret organization that wants her to go to Paris and persuade a friend a research physicist to join the Allied war effort The outcome could affect the whole course of the war A fascinating blend of fact and fiction Trapeze is both an old fashioned adventure story and a modern exploration of a young woman s growth into adulthood There is violence and there is love There is death and betrayal deception and revelation But above all there is Marian Sutro an ordinary young woman who like her real life counterparts in the SOE did the most extraordinary things at a time when the ordinary was not enough American Book Publishing Record ,2007 The 'Second World' in Contemporary British Writing Katrin Berndt,Andrew Wells,2024-08-12 The thirteen
