Japanese Imperialism in Contemporary English Fiction Ching-chih Wang, 2019-11-02

This book considers literary images of Japan created by David Mitchell Kazuo Ishiguro and Tan Twan Eng to examine the influence of Japanese imperialism and its legacy at a time when culture was appropriated as route to governmentality and violence justified as root to peace Using David Mitchell's The Thousand Autumns of Jacob de Zoet Tan Twan Eng's The Garden of the Evening Mists and Kazuo Ishiguro's work to examine Japanese militarists tactics of usurpation and how Japanese imperialism reached out to the grass root public and turned into a fundamental belief in colonial invasion and imperial expansion the book provides an in depth study of trauma memory and war From studying the rise of Japanese imperialism to Japan's legitimization of colonial invasion in addition to the devastating consequences of imperialism on both the colonizers and the colonized the book provides a literary discursive context to re-examine the forces of civilization which will appeal to all those interested in diasporic literature and postcolonial discourse and the continued relevance of literature in understanding memory legacy and war

Lye, 2024-12-24 This collection casts the spotlight on Asia and its place in global studies on trauma to explore the ways in which violence and trauma are re-enacted re-presented re-imagined reconciled and consumed through various mediums in the region The discussions revolve around the ethics of representing and discussing trauma as we negotiate the tensions between trauma and political historical literary and cultural representations in written visual digital and hybrid forms It examines how perspectives about trauma are framed perpetuated and or critiqued via theories and research methods and how a constructive tension between theory method and experience is essential for critical discourse on the subject It will discuss varied ways of understanding violence through multidisciplinary perspectives and comparative literature explore the violent psyches of narratives and writings across different mediums and platforms and engage with how violence and trauma continue to influence the telling and form of such narratives

Literary Gardens Sandra Lawrence, 2025-09-16 Gardens both real and imagined have long captured our imaginations They are places of mystery and magic beauty and danger romance and revelation writers have used them to reflect longing and create unforgettable moments of drama escape and wonder Literary Gardens explores thirty of the most atmospheric and emotionally charged gardens in literature From The Secret Garden and Alice's Adventures in Wonderland to Rebecca and The Great Gatsby these fictional gardens capture the atmosphere and emotion of the stories they belong to Some feel peaceful or nostalgic others are rich with mystery or unspoken tension each is shaped by the characters and moments that are revealed within them In Literary Gardens readers will uncover new stories and rediscover old favourites guided by Sandra Lawrence's lyrical storytelling and Lucille Clerc's evocative vision Literary Gardens is a tribute to the spaces that have stayed with us long after the final page a perfect gift for yourself or anyone who has ever wanted to step through the page and into another world The House of Doors Tan Twan Eng, 2024-10 The masterful San Francisco Chronicle Booker longlisted novel about love and betrayal colonialism and revolution storytelling and redemption The Art and Philosophy of the Garden David E. W. Fenner, Ethan Fenner, 2024 In The Art and Philosophy of the Garden philosopher David Fenner and botanist Ethan Fenner examine the philosophical ideas lying behind one of the most universal human activities They strip away our assumptions and take a close look at gardens starting with a definition of what a garden is and argue for a particularly way of understanding their aesthetic properties Fenner and Fenner make the case that many gardens have a claim to being legitimate works of art Their comprehensive and accessible discussion contributes to the resurgence of the theory of gardens and gardening and will also interest any thoughtful person who cares about gardens The Malayan Emergency in Film, Literature and Art Jonathan Driskell, Marek W. Rutkowski, Andrew Hock Soon Ng, 2025-02-06 Examining film literature and art produced during and after the Malayan Emergency the guerrilla war fought between the Malayan National Liberation Army and the military forces of the British Commonwealth this collection demonstrates how art functions as a record of cultural memory that both reinforces and challenges official histories Beyond that it also brings new understandings of the Malayan Emergency itself and Malaysia's subsequent development as a postcolonial nation The first section of the book focuses on films and writings produced during the period of the Emergency to capture the socio political circumstances of the time and understand its effect on the people The second section goes on to explore representations of the Emergency generated after the event highlighting how it was reimagined or reevaluated by later artists and what ideological ends they served Offering a comparative methodological approach it investigates works that account for a range of perspectives including British Communist and Malayan Malaysian Bringing together the personal and political within individual and collective histories this collection offers a new understanding of how the Emergency contributed to the formation of postcolonial Malaysia and demonstrates the central role that film literature and art play in the creation of cultural memory let us explore-7, 2018-11-09 The Edible Gardens of Ethiopia Valentina Peveri, 2020-11-10 What is a beautiful garden to southern Ethiopian farmers Anchored in the author's perceptual approach to the people plants land and food The Edible Gardens of Ethiopia opens a window into the simple beauty and ecological vitality of an ensete garden The ensete plant is only one among the many unloved crops that are marginalized and pushed close to disappearance by the advance of farming modernization and monocultural thinking And yet its human companions caught in a symbiotic and sensuous dialogue with the plant still relate to each exemplar as having individual appearance sensibility charisma and taste as an epiphany of beauty and prosperity and even believe that the plant can feel pain Here a different story is recounted of these human plant communities one of reciprocal love at times practiced in an act of secrecy The plot unfolds from the subversive and tasteful dimensions of gardening for subsistence and cooking in the garden of ensete through reflections on the cultural and edible dimensions of biodiversity to embrace hunger and beauty as absorbing aesthetic experiences in small scale agriculture Through this story the reader will enter the material and spiritual world of ensete and contemplate it as a modest yet inspiring example of hope in rapidly deteriorating landscapes Based on prolonged engagement with this virtuous plant of southwestern Ethiopia this book provides a nuanced reading of the ensete ventricosum avant garden and explores how the life in tiny diverse and womanly plots offers alternative visions of nature food policy and conservation efforts The Literary Review ,2012 Famous People Around The World. Malaysian Literature in English Mohammad A. Quayum, 2020-05-15 This collection of essays brings together work by some of the most internationally acclaimed critics of Malaysian literature in English from different parts of the world including Australia, Canada, Japan, Malaysia, Singapore, and the US. It investigates the works of major writers of the tradition in the genres of drama, fiction, and poetry from its beginnings to the present, focusing mainly on thematic and stylistic trends. The book pays particular attention to issues such as gender, ethnicity, nationalism, multiculturalism, diaspora, hybridity, and transnationalism, which are central to the creativity and imagination of these writers. The chapters collectively address the challenges and achievements of writers in the English language in a country where English, first introduced by the colonisers, has experienced a mixed fate of ups and downs in the post-independence period due to the changing and sometimes strikingly different policies adopted by the government. The book will be of interest to readers and researchers of Malaysian literature, Southeast Asian studies, and postcolonial literatures.
