And Between Globalization Integration Europeanization Springerbriefs:

Between Globalization and Integration Sebastian Vaduva, 2016-02-23 This volume focuses on the integration and globalization of Romania a prominent emerging market in South Eastern Europe and one of the major players in the securitization of the Black Sea and the Eastern European border as both a part of NATO since 2004 and a fully integrated EU Member State since 2007 It will examine the challenges the country has faced in its progression from totalitarianism to democracy through several waves of reform intended to update and streamline its political and economic processes for success in the free market capitalist arena Having learned the hard way about some of the key aspects of public administration Romania has learned a place for itself among the diverse global players of Europe and beyond The first section reviews current perspectives on globalization and its impact in the late 20th century It has flattened the Earth generating better communication and exchanges than ever before but also gathering a fair amount of criticisms from commentators seeing it as little else than neo colonialism Cooperative administrative strategies are being suggested instead in order for new public administration patterns to smoothly run in coordination with the globalized world In the second section the European Union is described as a complex multi level socio political entity itself historically in turmoil over its own style of rule e g hierarchy vs coordination integration vs centralization etc or even its own existence as the European dream seemed to be losing steam with the general population of Europe several times in the previous century Powers and responsibilities of the European institutions and agencies are also discussed Thirdly the recent history of Romania is approached from the Europeanization context starting from its post 1989 days of confusion and of attempting to jumpstart democracy Eventually it has to undergo a series of reforms and internalize some principles fundamental to the EU in order for the much awaited accession to occur and its multiple effects to start taking place A country with a rich cultural heritage and straddling multiple socio political axes Romania has plenty more to offer in the new geostrategic security and development contexts of the 21st century Europe As such this volume provides inspiration for further research and practical application opportunities on topics of local European and global significance

Immigration and the State Alex Balch, 2016-07-30 This book examines how and why liberalism and human rights have proven insufficient to protect immigrants Contemporary immigration systems are characterized by increasing complexity and expanding enforcement and frequently criticized for violating human rights and for causing death exclusion and exploitation The migrant crisis can also be understood as a crisis of hospitality for liberal democracies Through analysis of the immigration histories and political dynamics of Britain and the US the book explains how these two archetypal liberal states have both sought to create a hostile environment for unwanted immigrants The book provides a fresh and original perspective on the development of immigration systems showing how they have become subject to the politics of fear and greed and revealing how different traditions of hospitality have evolved survived and renewed

Globalisation Vs Europeanisation Léonce Bekemans, 2013 Glauben,

leben, handeln, 1972 Globalisation and European Integration Petros Nousios, Henk Overbeek, Andreas Tsolakis, 2012
 This book explores the links between European integration and globalisation and examines the potential for social transformation in the context of the global economic crisis and the resulting EU reforms. Divided into three parts, this book offers both empirical and theoretical analyses of social integration, supranationality and global competition. Drawing on Critical Political Economy research, Neo Gramscian, Open Marxist, Regulationist and Post-structuralist scholars, it subjects a wide range of European flagship policies in matters of competition, trade and security to critical scrutiny and relates them to global political economy dynamics. Contributors examine the ways in which current global economic turbulence has affected the European Union, its membership and its adjacent areas, and determine the potential for economic and political transformation in light of the global economic crisis and Europe's 2020 Strategy. In the emerging multi-polar world in which the EU and the US are expected to share global policymaking with new powers, this book argues for a revised conceptualisation of European integration and its relationship with globalisation. Globalisation and European Integration will be of interest to students, scholars and researchers of globalisation, political economy, international relations and European Union politics.

Globalization and Europeanization Stella Ladi, 2006 Globalization, Integration and Transition Monica Ioana Pop Silaghi, Helena Marques, Dumitru MATIS, 2010-03. This volume Globalization, Integration and Transition originates from the 8th International Network for Economic Research (INFER) workshop on International Economics held at the Faculty of Economics and Business Administration, Babeş-Bolyai University of Cluj-Napoca, Romania, on 17-18 October 2008. Fourteen papers are published in this volume and they form two themes: Globalization, Integration and Development and Facing Globalisation, Integration and Transition. Emergent countries, with a focus upon the Romanian Economy. This collection of papers aims to stimulate further debate on these issues and, in doing so, will help to broaden the exchange of ideas among economists in both academia and business. Transnational Capitalism and the Struggle Over European Integration Bastiaan van Apeldoorn, 2015-05-21. This book presents an analysis of the transnational social forces in the making of a new European socio-economic order that emerged out of the European integration process during the 1980s and 1990s. Arguing that the political economy of European integration must be put within the context of a changing global capitalism, Van Apeldoorn examines how European change is linked to global change and how transnational actors mediate these changes. Globalization and European Integration European Association of Comparative Economic Studies, 2000 Futures of the Western Balkans Marco Zoppi, 2022-03-16.
