Jerry, Catch Your Plane on Time Gerald P. Shea, 2009 Jerry Catch your Plane on Time Travels to the Middle East and Beyond contains a series of personal anecdotes and stories observed and participated in by Jerry Shea former President and CEO of the International Road Federation and the International Road Education Foundation It takes place over a 30 year period and highlights visits to some 12 countries in the Middle East South Asia Europe South America and Africa These include trips to Botswana Lebanon Poland Nigeria Argentina Sri Lanka Saudi Arabia Yemen Sudan Pakistan Jordan Egypt the Sinai and Turkey Jerry wanted to tell these stories so that his grandchildren would remember him and his career in the international road and highway fields Dublin, 2015-03-31 The Dublin University Magazine, 1865 Ireland, France, and the Atlantic in a Time of War Thomas M. Truxes, 2017-04-21 In March 1757 early in the Seven Years War a British privateer intercepted an Irish ship the Two Sisters of Dublin as it returned home from Bordeaux with a cargo of wine and French luxury goods Amongst the cargo seized were 125 letters from members of the Irish expatriate community which were to lay undisturbed in the British archives for the next 250 years Re discovered in 2011 by Dr Truxes this cache of mostly unopened letters provides a colorful intimate and revealing glimpse into the lives of ordinary people caught up in momentous events Taking this correspondence published by the British Academy in 2013 as a shared starting point the ten essays in this volume are not so much about the Bordeaux Dublin letters themselves but rather reflect upon themes perspectives and questions embedded within the mail of ordinary men women and children cut off from home by war The volume s introduction situates these essays within a broad Atlantic context allowing the succeeding chapters to explore a range of topics at the cutting edge of early modern British and Irish historical scholarship including women in the early modern world the consequences of war across all classes in society the eighteenth century penal laws and their impact and Irish expatriate communities on the European continent Leavening these broad themes with the personal snapshots of life provided by the Bordeaux Dublin letters this edited collection enlarges complicates and challenges our understanding of the mid eighteenth century Atlantic world U2 Live Pimm Jal de la Parra, 2003 Since their formation in 1976 U2 have played over 1 000 concerts to millions of fans around the world Now updated to include their PopMart and Elevation tours U2 Live A Concert Documentary takes you along to every single U2 live performance from 1976 to 2003 With over 500 colour and black white photographs Heart of the Messenger Melody Styles, 2018-03-28 Erina loved listening to her Uncle Bower s stories even now when she was only eight hafmons from adulthood She loved the excitement the adventure the magic and the heroes where good always conquered evil and the damsel was always rescued by the dashing knight She was also certain none of those things would ever happen to her safely trapped as she was in her quiet village life She had no idea that every five thousand turings one person was required to save the world from decent into an eon of cruelty and suffering at the hands of the Shadis Nor that she could be forced to take on such a perilous journey to the Isle of Cloud where good and evil are not so

Me Darlin' Dublin's Dead and Gone Bill Kelly, 2016-05-17 Bill Kelly survived a tough childhood in Dublin to become one of Ireland's foremost journalists perhaps best known for his Sunday Press soccer column as Big Bill which was so popular it ran for thirty years Here with the sure touch of a born storyteller he takes us back to his tenement boyhood in a time when discos television even the wireless were in the realm of science fiction and water wings were made from two paraffin oil tins and a piece of twine Then he leads us onward through his extraordinary and varied life his Catholic schooling where the nuns left him in no doubt that hell was a terribly real place and damn few escaped it his debut boxing event as a pro under an assumed name for a fiver for three rounds his introduction to journalism in the newsroom of Radio ireann in 1946 his brief career in PR when he represented the great boxer Jack Doyle how he rescued Kippure with the Irish Parachute Club his boozing sessions with Brendan Behan and so much more Big Bill's love of his native city shines through every word but it is his own exuberant and humorous take on life that makes this such a memorable read

Joyce's Finnegans Wake John P. Anderson, 2012-04 This sixth in a series continues this non academic author's ground breaking word by word analysis of James Joyce's Finnegans Wake This volume covers all of the long chapter 2 3 with the intent to explore its 80 pages as an art object Coming off the last chapter about children the role performed in the case of children by over bearing parents is taken over by imperialistic forces in the case of adults The imperialists consume weak adult spirits by telling them what to do Anal retentive children become passive aggressive adults under the direction of imperialists They are the head liners in this chapter The spirit imperialists in this chapter range from the church allowing you to experience the joy of sexual intercourse only in the harness of the properly married state to the state ordering you to kill other humans to your customers whose desires you must appease in order to do business and to your collective unconscious which houses the collective bulletins registered in human experience All of these usurpers are deployed to limit your free will and tell you what to do They speak to your outer ear in order to smother the voice in your inner ear In terms of RCC theology related to the human spirit the Holy Spirit is at least theoretically the source of mutuality and is supposed to infuse the spirit of the joined father son divine mutuality into our human relationships But that spirit has since Pentecost been locked up in and administered exclusively by the church through its sacraments In Joyce s theology a passive Holy Spirit sequestered in the church does register the relationship in the trinity of father and son but that relationship is not charity but the domination of the father over the son Joyce sees this father dominance in Christ s fearful reluctance in the Garden of Gethsemane In this chapter the three main victims made passive by the spirit imperialists are the Captain in the Norwegian Captain tale Buckley in the Buckley and Russian General tale and Earwicker in his own pub The subject arenas for passivity are sex war and earning a living In the background as always with Joyce is the passivity of Eve and Adam in the Garden a passivity that let aggressive TZTZ god into their spirits as fear and dependency and was laid down in the collective unconscious The setting for this chapter about the human spirit is the sale of alcoholic spirits by Earwicker in his Pub aptly named the House of Call With stout flowing into glasses and coins pinging into his till this chapter focuses on what else in the process the Proprietor Earwicker sells to the consuming patrons And that what else is his own stout his own spirit Even though he is the Proprietor he no longer owns himself He takes their orders and then takes their orders The audience in this pub setting is exclusively male And inasmuch as the alcohol does the talking when these males do and say what they want they listen to the same old stories and banter at rather than talk to each other There is no union or communion or mutuality promoting conversation Passive aggressives yell at each other but don t communicate communication being the mutuality based network of the Holy Spirit In a pun that connects much of this chapter juvenile psychosexual hang ups become telephone type hang ups in adult communication and mutuality
