And Healing Power Intersections Ethnicity Culture:

Child and Family Practice Shelley Cohen Konrad, 2019-11-29 The second edition of Child and Family Practice A Relational Perspective examines the world of social work and other mental health counselling practices through the eyes of children families and child centred practitioners Case stories are liberally used to illustrate how theories and approaches are applied in real world practice and emphasize the complexities of working with a broad and diverse range of people and systems Developmental and relational theories highlight the distinctive differences between child centred and adult based practice particularly due to children s interdependence on families and carers This second edition also brings readers up to speed on changes in social policy theoretical perspectives and cultural understandings and shifts in world views that have taken place since volume one The book is intended for use in classrooms and also for others invested in improving the lives of children in their practice settings

The Intersection of Global Health and Sustainable Development Corinne Schuster-Wallace, Lalita Bharadwaj, 2025-03-12 This perceptive book highlights the significance of the natural intersection between global health and sustainable development presenting new ways to simultaneously advance progress in both fields Showcasing narratives from a wide variety of regional and health contexts The Intersection of Global Health and Sustainable Development advocates for social and environmental justice as a cornerstone to reducing inequities within and between nations

Intersecting Journeys Ellen Badone, Sharon R. Roseman, 2010-10-01 The appeal of sacred sites remains undiminished at the start of the twenty first century as unprecedented numbers of visitors travel to Lourdes Rome Jerusalem Santiago de Compostela and even Star Trek conventions Ethnographic analysis of the conflicts over resources and meanings associated with such sites as well as the sense of community they inspire provides compelling evidence re emphasizing the links between pilgrimage and tourism As the papers in this collection demonstrate studies of these forms of journeying are at the forefront of postmodern debates about movement and centers global flows social identities and the negotiation of meanings

Counseling Across and Beyond Cultures Rinaldo Walcott, Roy Moodley, 2010-01-01 Multicultural counseling is a dynamic field one that continually changes to reflect shifting social norms and to serve an increasingly diverse and globalized population There is a growing need for counselors and psychotherapists who are sensitive and inclusive not only in regard to race culture and ethnicity but also in matters related to gender age sexual orientation disability and class Inspired by the pioneering work of C. Wright Mills and others the contributors to Counseling across and beyond Cultures trace the evolution of multicultural counseling and discuss remaining challenges for practitioners Essays include personal reflections by Vontress himself assessments of developments in multicultural counseling evaluations of Vontress s influence in Canada and the United Kingdom and African and Caribbean perspectives on his work Throughout the volume offers historical philosophical and critical analysis of Vontress s accomplishments in the light of the changing epistemologies of multicultural counseling and psychotherapy

At the Intersection of Hermeneutics and Homiletics Yung Suk Kim, 2025-04-18 While hermeneutics involves comprehensive study of the biblical text whether through historical or literary or reader focused approaches homiletics is concerned with a selected theme message and on the composition and delivery of sermon discourse aimed at a particular audience But the border between hermeneutics and homiletics is blurry because both disciplines require readers to engage the biblical text from their own contexts This collection deals with the intersection of hermeneutics and homiletics by exploring two revelatory texts one from the Hebrew Bible and the other from the New Testament the book of Ruth and Matthew 15 21-28 a Canaanite woman's encounter with Jesus Both reflect agonizing issues that readers must tackle immigration family community identity agency race ethnicity gender class culture economy and religion A diverse group of scholars brings their transgressive perspectives to the above texts Unfolding new areas of interest inquiry and insight they will transgress authoritative readings of biblical texts fashion hermeneutic horizons in dialogue with the text and forge homiletic trajectories toward contemporary audiences Without limiting interpretation to a box this volume looks to register bold voices to perennial issues in our day Homiletic transformation occurs through the relentless resistant reading of the text and through reimagining our world

Intersections of Multiple Identities Miguel E. Gallardo, Brian W. McNeill, 2011-02-11 Over the past two decades there has been an increase in the need to prepare and train mental health personnel in working with diverse populations In order to fully understand individuals from different cultures and ethnic backgrounds practitioners need to begin to examine conceptualize and treat individuals according to the multiple ways in which they identify themselves The purpose of this casebook is to bridge the gap between the current practice of counseling with the newest theories and research on working with diverse clientele Each chapter is written by leading experts in the field of multicultural counseling and includes a case presentation with a detailed analysis of each session a discussion of their theoretical orientation and how they have modified it to provide more culturally appropriate treatment and an explanation of how their own dimensions of diversity and worldviews enhance or potentially impede treatment This text is a significant contribution to the evolving area of multicultural counseling and will be a valuable resource to mental health practitioners working with diverse populations
