Book by Book Michael Dirda, 2025-04-16 As warm and stimulating as a library to which one returns again and again the Pulitzer Prize winning critic discusses the rewards of reading books Chicago Tribune Editor's Choice Once out of school most of us read for pleasure Yet there is another equally important though often overlooked reason that we read to learn how to live Though books have always been understood as life teachers the exact way in which they instruct cajole and convince remains a subject of some mystery Drawing on sources as diverse as Dr Seuss and Simone Weil P G Wodehouse and Isaiah Berlin Pulitzer Prize winning critic Michael Dirda shows how the wit wisdom and enchantment of the written word can inform and enrich nearly every aspect of life from education and work to love and death Organized by significant life events and abounding with quotations from great writers and thinkers Book by Book showcases Dirda's considerable knowledge which he wears lightly Favoring showing rather than telling Dirda draws the reader deeper into the classics as well as lesser known works of literature history and philosophy always with an eye to what is relevant to how we might better understand our lives Highly cultured yet never pretentious Dirda's survey convincingly demonstrates what a wealth of life lessons moral emotional and aesthetic a good library can contain Publishers Weekly Notes on Books, 1865 Notes on books

Bernard Shaw's Book Reviews Brian Tyson, 2008-01-31 These hitherto uncollected book reviews of Shaw his first journalistic efforts reveal much not only about the writer but also the culture of the time in which he lived Between 1885 and 1888 Bernard Shaw published 111 book reviews in the Pall Mall Gazette In spite of their importance as the first regular journalism Shaw wrote and the fact that the books fiction nonfiction plays and poetry he read during these years must have formed the nucleus of his permanent library the reviews have never before been analyzed in connection with Shaw's work

Brian Tyson has assembled the book reviews complete with the books titles authors and a brief biography of each author including any comments Shaw made about the review and has placed them in historical context elucidating any interesting difficult or obscure references Tyson s critical introduction places the reviews in the context of Shaw s work and Victorian society The reviews are often characterized by the wit and brilliance that we associate with the later Shaw shedding light on his development as a writer at his most formative stage Regardless of the merits of the material Shaw was reviewing it is amusing and enlightening to follow him down to the wandering tributaries of Late Victorian fiction and poetry which reveal as much about Shaw as they do about the preoccupations and prejudices of the average reader of the day The Journal of Education ,1895 A Classified Catalogue of School, College ... and General Educational Works in Use in the
