Making Money Peet van Biljon,Alexandra Lajoux,2020-01-20 How much do you really know about money Everyone uses it but few know how it really works Most books about money focus on specific aspects This book breaks through the usual silos to present money as a broad social technology that serves the current needs of society It reviews the latest developments in financial technology including cryptocurrency blockchain and the prospect of a cashless future and clears up many misconceptions in the process Starting with a very brief history the authors provide insights on how money is made why money has value and what can change its value how central banks treasuries foreign exchange lending and blockchain work why you may be trading against robots and privacy and security issues in an increasingly cashless society that will change our lives While written for a broad audience this book is also essential reading for students entering courses in the area of business finance or money and banking A Force for Good John G.

Taft, 2015-03-17 After the crisis of 2008 the social contract between the financial industry and everyone else was badly broken perhaps it seemed irrevocably Since then banks have paid out billion dollar settlements and Congress has passed some new laws but a deeper rapprochement is still missing John Taft has gathered some of the greatest financial minds of our time to explore how Wall Street can harness the same creative energy that invented credit default swaps and channel it towards the public good in the form of a stable retirement system investment strategies that protect the environment and reward responsible corporate behavior and a financial industry with a culture of ethics integrity and client focus These perspectives from a who's who of leaders in the field offer a blueprint for a new kind of responsible finance and banking that secures the future for everyone Contributors include Robert Shiller on financial capitalism and innovation Charles D Ellis on restoring ethical standards Sheila Bair on regulatory reform John C Bogle and Mary Schapiro on rebuilding investor trust Judd Gregg on long term fiscal imbalances Barbara Novick on the retirement savings gap David Blood on sustainable finance With so much brainpower in the financial sector the potential for change is limitless A Force for Good is the call to action the industry sorely needs CRIPTOMOEDAS.
