American Notebook Michael Gawenda, 2014-03-05 One of the rewards extended to former editors if they are lucky and get to plan their departure is that they can choose their next assignment I had no doubt about what I wanted to be Washington correspondent for The Age and The Sydney Morning Herald There was no more important and interesting international story to cover than the United States at the beginning of George W Bush s second term The war in Iraq was going badly and it was not at all clear that the war on terror was being won or even if there was any agreement that it was in fact a war When veteran journalist Michael Gawenda was posted to the USA as a Washington correspondent in 2005 George W Bush was beginning his second term and the war in Iraq was showing signs of becoming a quagmire Two years later Bush is a lame duck president and most Americans want their troops out of Iraq American Notebook is Gawenda s absorbing and insightful account of his American posting Weaving the personal into the political Gawenda takes the reader on his journey into a country he has always loved Beyond daily life in Washington he visits hurricane ravaged New Orleans and the God fearing states of the Midwest His engaging analysis of politics and current events is interwoven with his reflections on his childhood as a post war Jewish refugee growing up in the sixties in a Melbourne steeped in American culture In light of the increasingly evident failure of efforts in Iraq he revisits his own controversial decision while editor of The Age newspaper to support the Howard Government s decision in 2003 to join the coalition of the willing American Notebook is a fascinating discussion of the role of journalism and the nature of public debate about war politics and current events American Notebooks Marie-Claire Blais, 1996 Portraits of the writers musicians artists and social activists who influenced the life and work of Blais in the 1960s Writing between the Lines Agnes Whitfield, 2006-03-03 The essays in Writing between the Lines explore the lives of twelve of Canada s most eminent anglophone literary translators and delve into how these individuals have contributed to the valuable process of literary exchange between francophone and anglophone literatures in Canada Through individual portraits this book traces the events and life experiences that have led W H Blake John Glassco Philip Stratford Joyce Marshall Patricia Claxton Doug Jones Sheila Fischman Ray Ellenwood Barbara Godard Susanne de Lotbiniere Harwood John Van Burek and Linda Gaboriau into the complex world of literary translation Each essay portrait examines why they chose to translate and what linguistic and cultural challenges they have faced in the practice of their art Following their relationships with authors and publishers the translators also reveal how they have defined the goals and the process of literary translation Containing original detailed biographical and bibliographical material Writing between the Lines offers many new insights into the literary translation process and the diverse roles of the translator as social agent The first text on Canadian translators it makes a major contribution in the areas of literary translation comparative literature Canadian literature and cultural studies To the Life of the Silver Harbor Reuel K. American Road Trip Илья Ильф, Евгений Петров, 2007 In 1935, well into the era of Soviet communism, Russian satirical writers Ilya Ilf and Evgeny Petrov came to the U.S. as special correspondents for the Russian newspaper Pravda. They drove cross-country and back on a ten-week trip, recording images of American life through humorous texts and the lens of a Leica camera. When they returned home, they published their work in Ogoniok, the Soviet equivalent of Time magazine, and later in the book Oдноэтажная Америка (Single Storied America). This wonderful lost work, filled with wry observations, biting opinions, and telling photographs, is now collected in Ilf and Petrov's American Road Trip, the first English translation. From Ilf and Petrov's American Road Trip: The word America has well-developed grandiose associations for a Soviet person for whom it refers to a country of skyscrapers where day and night one hears the unceasing thunder of surface and underground trains, the hellish roar of automobile horns, and the continuous despairing screams of stockbrokers rushing through the skyscrapers waving their ever-falling shares. We want to change that image. A Cabinet Book published by Princeton Architectural Press.

The Routledge Companion to Travel Writing Carl Thompson, 2015-12-22 As many places around the world confront issues of globalization, migration, and postcoloniality, travel writing has become a serious genre of study reflecting some of the greatest concerns of our time. Encompassing forms as diverse as field journals, investigative reports, guidebooks, memoirs, comic sketches, and lyrical reveries, travel writing is now a crucial focus for discussion across many subjects within the humanities and social sciences. An ideal starting point for beginners but also offering new perspectives for those familiar with the field, The Routledge Companion to Travel Writing examines key debates within the field, including postcolonial studies, gender, sexuality, and visual culture. Historical and cultural contexts tracing the evolution of travel writing across time and over cultures. Different styles, modes, and themes of travel writing from pilgrimage to tourism. Imagined geographies and the relationship between travel writing and the social, ideological, and occasionally fictional constructs through which we view the different regions of the world. Covering all of the major topics and debates, this is an essential overview of the field which will exploration of the world's dark corners the novel is a teeming microcosm in which boundaries collapse and the extremes and contradictions that animate our times are reconciled Blais locks us directly into the consciousness of her characters many of whom we met in her previous novel These Festive Nights and many that she derives from actual news stories Jessica a seven year old attempting to beat the world record as the youngest pilot to cross the continent Nathanael a teenager on death row for killing his favourite teacher Our Lady of the Bags a modern day Joan of Arc who lives among Manhattan's skyscrapers and follows the voices in her head and Caroline and Jean Mathieu aging artists who are fighting to come together again One character's thoughts or actions have consequences for another 3 000 miles away who is a complete stranger to the first This is an intricate house of cards delicately but expertly constructed that shocks us in its perversity and familiarity ultimately finding hope and redemption in the most human and basic forms of art

These Festive Nights Marie-Claire Blais, 2018-08-07 The first volume in the beloved novelist Marie Claire Blais prize winning novel cycle acclaimed as one of the greatest undertakings in modern Quebec fiction reissued in a handsome A List edition featuring an introduction by Lisa Moore Originally published in 1995 under the title Soifs the first novel in Marie Claire Blais masterful series won the Governor General's Award for French Fiction and was hailed by critics around the world as a tour de force comparing Blais to such literary greats as Virginia Woolf Dante Sophocles and Shakespeare In this dazzling rendering These Festive Nights celebrated translator Sheila Fischman brings Blais novel to life for English speaking readers A sun drenched paradise in the Gulf of Mexico surrounded by the glimmering blue sea Renata is convalescing on this island poised between two worlds between great wealth and extreme poverty between the past and an uncertain future between the beauty of the world and the horrors of history During her time here Renata becomes tormented by thirst for justice for pleasure for intoxication while all around her festivities are going on in joint celebration of the birth of baby Vincent and the end of the twentieth century Over the course of three days and three nights a flock of characters assembles an entire spectrum of humanity is depicted in the grip of doubt and suffering In this swirling baroque fresco Marie Claire Blais captures the essence of our apocalyptic age rendering it in powerfully evocative prose

Nothing for You Here, Young Man Marie-Claire Blais, 2014-05-16 In the latest installment in her award winning series Marie Claire Blais reintroduces us to Petites Cendres familiar from other books in the cycle and lets us into the lives of two other unforgettable characters She shows us once again how creativity and hope and suffering and exclusion intersect There is the writer who is stranded in an airport of the South Island he is held captive because of a delayed flight And a teenage musician a former child prodigy living on the streets with his dog wonders where he will get his next meal Then there is Petites Cendres who no longer dances or sings and refuses to get out of bed to attend the coronation of the new Queen of Night By superimposing these three worlds Blais continues her ambitious compelling exploration of life in contemporary North America

Rebecca, Born in the Maelstrom Marie-Claire Blais, 2009-09-15 With this astounding fourth novel in her ongoing series of contemporary masterpieces These Festive Nights Thunder and

Light Augustino and the Choir of Destruction and Rebecca Born in the Maelstrom Marie Claire Blais invites us again to enter a complex circle of unforgettable characters But this time the tone is different Blais writing has acquired a new buoyant electrifying rhythm a rhythm some critics have described as the heartbeat of the world As we follow a central character named Rebecca the voice in the novel becomes the voice of the world inventing itself and the future playing itself out As the GG jury wrote this breathtaking paroxysm of a novel turns any commonly held vision of the world upside down Blais transcendent prose illuminates her characters with an extraordinary light Nigel Spencer is Marie Claire Blais long time translator and a Governor General s Award winner for his work on this series of books He gives us Blais singular vision in supple English prose that is as transcendent and nuanced as the original French The Acacia Gardens Marie-Claire Blais,2016-06-04 What anxiety grips Petites Cendres as he runs towards the sea in the sunshine on a warm tropical morning Shouldn t he be reassured by the thought that he now lives at the Acacia Gardens a comfortable home where all find care understanding and healing How can Fleur the young musical prodigy listen to the diabolical confessions of Wrath the fugitive priest without shuddering And can Daniel the writer finish his novel the one he has been working on for twenty years despite his sensitivity and empathy for all creatures even if they are the most humble like the lizard he inadvertently crushed under his sandal With this latest novel Marie Claire Blais once again gives us a vibrant portrait that embraces the span of life from birth to death and beyond Her characters question their purpose and what will come after as they are confronted by evil that lives and that has taken root A Twilight Celebration Marie-Claire Blais,2019-07-30 The latest work in internationally acclaimed author Marie Claire Blais s masterful novel cycle A Twilight Celebration examines the prophetic side of the writer and the burden that falls to him in a world whose fate is yet to be determined Daniel a middle aged novelist and loving father alienated from one of his sons and unsure how to care for his daughter is on his way to an international conference of writers The gathering is to be held in the forest above a mountain village of a strangely dreamlike nature In the twilight of the festival s setting dreams memories nightmares and dark forebodings meld in Daniel s unsettled but deeply sympathetic consciousness He is haunted by pressing existential questions What is to be done What are his responsibilities as a father as a friend and as a writer As Daniel confronts his own vanities as he recalls the activism but also the disappointments and betrayals of friends and colleagues as he contends with above all the fears and aspirations of his children in times marred by apocalypse he asks ultimately what can be done In what may well be the most beautiful and disturbing of her novels Marie Claire Blais leads us on a heady spellbinding journey through an interconnected world in which the artist strives to divert humankind s headlong rush towards a terrible destiny Here is a world in which friends and strangers the living the dead and those not yet born are inextricably bonded by their often flawed but always splendid humanity Yet again Blais captivates with her urgent concerns irrepressible empathy and singular idiom A Twilight Celebration is an astonishing literary accomplishment Augustino and the Choir of Destruction Marie-Claire Blais,2007-05-01 In Augustino and the Choir of

Destruction literary legend and three time winner of the Governor General's Literary Award Marie Claire Blais delivers the third volume in the prize winning series These Festive Nights Thunder and Light Augustino and the Choir of Destruction and Rebecca Born in the Maelstrom acclaimed as one of the greatest undertakings in modern Quebec fiction Augustino and the Choir of Destruction is set on an island in the Gulf of Mexico that is home to the full spectrum of humanity the rich the poor the powerful the humble artists criminals With her unique signature use of punctuation Marie Claire Blais manages to brilliantly show in one flashing stroke men and women victims and tormentors child kamikaze pilots and petty thieves from Bahama Street Charles a great poet cut down by AIDS Cinderella a transvestite prostituting himself to a customer at the Porte du Baiser saloon Caroline an artist and photographer who has seen all the hidden treasures of the world and Augustino a clairvoyant child writer These individual destinies combine in Blais vision to form a single harmonic texture
