Stand Still Like The Hummingbird

David Lazar

Stand Still Like The Hummingbird:

Stand Still Like the Hummingbird Henry Miller, 1962 One of Henry Miller's most luminous statements of his personal philosophy of life Stand Still Like the Hummingbird provides a symbolic title for this collection of stories and essays Many of them have appeared only in foreign magazines while others were printed in small limited editions which have gone out of print Miller's genius for comedy is at its best in Money and How It Gets That Way a tongue in cheek parody of economics provoked by a postcard from Ezra Pound which asked if he ever thought about money His deep concern for the role of the artist in society appears in An Open Letter to All and Sundry and in The Angel is My Watermark he writes of his own passionate love affair with painting The Immorality of Morality is an eloquent discussion of censorship Some of the stories such as First Love are autobiographical and there are portraits of friends such as Patchen Man of Anger and Light and essays on other writers such as Walt Whitman Thoreau Sherwood Anderson and Ionesco Taken together these highly readable pieces reflect the incredible vitality and variety of interests of the writer who extended the frontiers of modern literature with Tropic of Cancer and other great books

This Is Another Day Deborah A. Lee, 2023-04-19 This Is Another Day is a collection of daily meditations crafted to be a companion on your spiritual journey Written from the heart these devotional reflections invite us into God's word in order for us to speak a shared language of love inspiration sustenance and even challenge as we journey together into unknown seasons Buoyed by the overwhelming grace of Christ we are called by Jesus whose resurrection transcends death and fear to keep our hearts and minds set on hope love mercy justice thanksgiving and reconciliation

Into the Heart of Life Henry Miller, 2014-08-30 In celebration of the centennial of his birth Into the Heart of Life Henry Miller at One Hundred gathers a captivating selection of writings from ten of his books The delights of his prose are many not the least of which is Miller's comic irony which as The London Times noted can be as stringent and urgent as Swift's Frederick Turner has organized the whole to highlight the autobiographical chronology of Miller's life and along the way places the author squarely where he belongs in the great tradition of American radical individualism as a child of Emerson Thoreau and Whitman Miller who joyously declared I am interested like God only in the individual would have been pleased The keynotes here are self liberation and the pleasures of Miller's knotty cross-grained genius as Turner describes it defying classification ultimately unamenable to any vision any program not his own Or as Henry Miller himself put it I am the hero and the book is myself

I'll Be Your Mirror David Lazar, 2017-01-01 In his third book of essays David Lazar blends personal meditations on sex and death with considerations of popular music and coping with anxiety through singing bowling and other distractions He sets his work apart as both in the essay and of the essay by throwing himself into the form's past interviewing or speaking to past masters and turning over rocks to find lost gems of the essay form I'll Be Your Mirror further expands the dimensions of contemporary nonfiction writing by concluding with a series of aphorisms Surreal comical and urban moments of being they are part Cioran part Kafka and part Lenny Bruce These are accompanied by Heather Frise's illustrations whose looking glass visions of motherhood funny and grotesque meet the vision of the aphorist in this most unusual nonfiction book In Dire

Straits Jim Currie, 2011-03-05 In Dire Straits is a healing memoir about the challenges of coping with and recovering from an incapacitating rheumatoid disease Told from the perspective of a solo world traveler it reads like a travel book full of edifying adventures and quirky discoveries Each encounter prompts reflection on self-empowerment through greater mindfulness curiosity and imagination Roots and Routes: Poetics at New College of California Patrick James Dunagan, Marina

Lazzara, Nicholas James Whittington, 2020-10-06 Roots and Routes gathers essays talks interviews statements notes and other prose writings by poets who studied and or taught at the New College of California's Masters in Poetics program over the course of its nearly 30 year existence The collection evokes a much needed anti-hierarchical even anarchic pedagogy in poetry poetics and the literary arts and is part of a general reevaluation of standard higher education models on Creative Writing As such it will appeal to a wide range of students and scholars interested in America's recent literary history as well as to poets outside the academy and the general reader interested in US poetry and poetics The Mindful Traveler Jim D.
