Complete Conditioning for Basketball National Basketball Strength & Conditioning Association (NBSCA), Bill Foran, 2025-02-03 In this age of positionless basketball players are expected to have a diverse set of abilities that allow them to perform capably in multiple roles on the court This diverse skill set must be supported by multidimensional athleticism Complete Conditioning for Basketball explains how to achieve just that Members of the National Basketball Strength Conditioning Association NBSCA the foremost basketball training experts in the world present this comprehensive science based training manual to maximize the physical performance potential of today's players. With their combined 350 seasons of working with athletes at the college and professional levels, the 14 authors add insights, activities, and plans that optimize results for each player. An entire chapter is devoted to player assessment with test protocols and accompanying normative scores provided to identify physical deficiencies and establish baseline scores to use for gauging future improvement. These are followed by proven training exercises and drills to improve mobility and flexibility, upper and lower body strength, core strength, power, and explosiveness, and speed and agility. On-court conditioning activities ensure that the gains made in the training room transfer to game time, preparing players to navigate the court swiftly, explode with power to the basket, and reach rebounds quicker than the opposition. Also included are guidelines and recommendations for nutrition, sleep, and rest to stay fresh and primed for every physical and mental challenge. In the event of an injury, there is invaluable guidance for safely and responsibly returning to training and competition. Plus, you'll find a complete training program consisting of 16-week off-season strength and conditioning plans for either three or four days per week, as well as programming guidance for the preseason, in-season, and postseason to make progressive improvements throughout the year. Let the winners of 10 NBA Strength Conditioning Coach of the Year awards be your guides to getting players into the best basketball shape possible. Complete Conditioning for Basketball will not only elevate player's fitness and athleticism but also take their performance to the highest level.
