

Many of these sites allow me to load my information for free, so why do I have to pay?
Our value is access, efficiency, and the Info Cast lifetime. Time savings, depth of distribution, access to non public databases such as GPS Devices, Mobile Devices and 411 directories are just a few notable advantages. With over 350 digital distribution points, one could imagine the time spent managing this enormous task. Our nominal fee becomes a "no brainer" for most businesses. Most business couldn't even name 50 distribution points. How could they possibly manage information in portals, publishers, and directories they aren't even aware of? Also, loading this information is included in the NetCare package but businesses are paying for that service. The businesses are also receiving web identity security and management with NetCare.

What is an Online Citation?

Any reference to a business or website in an alternate location (ie a directory or Mapping Section).

How do I make changes to my Web Card?

Submit the change requests to support@adzzoo.com. Be sure to include the business name and be sure to reference you are a NetCare client.

Why would a NetCare product owner want to upgrade or include an Adword campaign?

Net Care is primarily a listing syndication service accompanied by an awareness and educational communicative process known as Info Cast. NetCare does encompass geo-targeted elements based on search queries as does search engine marketing initiatives, however NetCare's results are not displayed in the sponsored link sections. Search engine marketing advertising still proves to be an immediate and effective method of reaching prospects.

Does NetCare Provide a Landing Page?

No, NetCare does provide a Web Card with acts as a Micro-Site for their business. This also serves as a "Master Copy" of their business profile. This becomes the source where all information is disseminated from to ensuring accurate and consistent syndication efforts.

Can we predict/quote how much progression the business owner will see in the different categories of the Local Identity Report?

No, we can't be certain exactly what percentages will change in each category. It depends on a variety of items, some of which are out of our control. The percentage increases will vary. Businesses with a low starting position will undoubtedly show larger percentage increases.
