

Eagle Scout Recommendation Letter

To Whom It May Concern,

It is a source of great pride and joy to compose this Eagle Scout letter of recommendation my dear friend Mark Sheridan. I have known Mr. Sheridan for the past seven years, as he is a good friend of my nephew in school and we live in the same neighborhood.

Mr. Sheridan is a reputable, reliable and trustworthy person, as evidenced by the manner in which he lives his life. He carries out his daily activities diligently and with such honesty and takes pride in his work. He is known as a man of his word; a person of integrity. Mr. Sheridan is not one to turn his back on a neighbor in need.

I believe that he is an eligible candidate for an Eagle Scout since he lives his life in accordance with the principles set by the Eagle Scout.

Rest assured that the contents of this letter was kept strictly confidential and created for the eyes only of the members of the Eagle Scout Board of Review. Neither are the contents of the letter discussed with the candidate before or after the time that of completion.

Sincerely,

Mr. George Florsheim

Juvenile Nation Stephanie Olsen,2014-01-16 In the first five months of the Great War one million men volunteered to fight Yet by the end of 1915 the British government realized that conscription would be required Why did so many enlist and conversely why so few Focusing on analyses of widely felt emotions related to moral and domestic duty Juvenile Nation broaches these questions in new ways Juvenile Nation examines how religious and secular youth groups the juvenile periodical press and a burgeoning new group of child psychologists social workers and other experts affected society s perception of a new problem character the adolescent By what means should this character be turned into a fit citizen Considering qualities such as loyalty character temperance manliness fatherhood and piety Stephanie Olsen discusses the idea of an informal education focused on building character through emotional control and how this education was seen as key to shaping the future citizenry of Britain and the Empire Juvenile Nation recasts the militarism of the 1880s onwards as part of an emotional outpouring based on association to family to community and to Christian cultural continuity. Significantly the same emotional responses explain why so many men turned away from active militarism with duty to family and community perhaps thought to have been best carried out at home. By linking the historical study of the emotions with an examination of the individual's place in society Olsen provides an important new insight on how a generation of young men was formed.

Practicing Atheism Hannah K. Scheidt, 2021. Although many individuals identify as atheists little is understood about the belief system beyond the simple lack of a belief in a higher power. Hannah K. Scheidt's Practicing Atheism: Culture, Media, and Ritual in the Contemporary Atheist Network unpacks the cultural products both corporate-driven and grassroots that carry messages about atheism to examine the complicated relationship between organized atheism and religion.
