Land Use Law in a Nutshell Patricia E. Salkin, Jennie C. Nolon, 2021 This book reviews the common law principles that underpin modern land use regulations including covenants and restrictions that work with government regulation to limit the use of private property The Nutshell clearly explains the legal aspects of land planning and regulation project review processes and innovative and flexible regulatory devices Subdivision and site plan regulation local environment law discrimination in zoning based on race and religion regulatory takings inverse condemnation and community development practices are all explored In addition the book discusses the law of smart growth and addresses current trends in land use law including the siting of renewable energy facilities marijuana and drones An appendix of internet based resources is also provided Law and planning students will find that this Nutshell covers the key cases in all land use law textbooks and seasoned practitioners and planners will find the organization and approach to dozens of subject areas beneficial to their understanding of the nuts and bolts of land use law as well as some current trends Publisher A Decision-centred View of Environmental Planning A. Faludi, 2013-10-22

Planning theorists are often criticised for being insufficiently concerned with the needs of practitioners The author of this book takes a view of planning which centres around the decision making process and offers a theoretical approach which takes practice as its starting point Building on his earlier important work Planning Theory Pergamon URPS 1984 first edition 1973 this book constitutes a further major advance in planning thought synthesizing the influence of the British IOR School with the American rational planning model Going beyond previous generic approaches the work culminates in a consideration of theory and practice in the planning of all forms of environmental intervention

City and Regional Planning Richard LeGates, 2022-12-30 City and Regional Planning provides a clearly written and lavishly illustrated overview of the theory and practice of city and regional planning With material on globalization and the world city system and with examples from a number of countries the book has been written to meet the needs of readers worldwide who seek an overview of city and regional planning Chapters cover the history of cities and city and regional planning urban design and placemaking comprehensive plans planning politics and plan implementation planning visions and environmental transportation and housing planning The book pays special attention to diversity social justice and collaborative planning Topics include current practice in resilience transit oriented development complexity in planning spatial equity globalization and advances in planning methods It is aimed at U S graduate and undergraduate city and regional planning geography urban design urban studies civil engineering and other students and practitioners It includes extensive material on current practice in planning for climate change Each chapter includes a case study a biography of an important planner lists of concepts and important people and a list of books articles videos and other suggestions for further learning Cases, Materials, and Problems on General Practice Insurance Law Kenneth H. York, John W. Whelan, 1988 Bowker's Law Books and Serials in Print, 1995 Models of Religious Freedom Marcel Stüssi, 2012 In this thesis the US Swiss and Syrian models of religious freedom are illustrated in legal settings The Analytical Representation comprises more than statements of positive law or mechanical comparison Each chapter is introduced by thought forms predominant in the respective legal culture The objective of the Methodological Representation is to investigate the logic and legitimate pattern by which the US and Swiss judiciary come to the conclusion that an alleged interference is covered under the right to religious freedom The last dimension which is the Eclectic Representation pursues a dual aim Firstly the idea is to develop an actual guideline of religious freedom rules and secondly to evaluate how much religious freedom is internalized in the US Swiss and Syrian legal systems Dissertation Series ReligionsRecht im Dialog Vol 12
