Aboriginal Peoples and Forest Lands in Canada D.B. Tindall, Ronald Trosper, Pamela Perreault, 2013-02-11 Aboriginal people in Canada have long struggled to regain control over their traditional forest lands Aboriginal Peoples and Forest Lands in Canada brings together the diverse perspectives of Aboriginals and non Aboriginals to address the political cultural environmental and economic implications of forest use This book discusses the need for professionals working in forestry and conservation to understand the context of Aboriginal participation in resource management It also addresses the importance of researching traditional knowledge and traditional land use and examines the development of co management initiatives and joint ventures between government forestry companies and Aboriginal communities Fishing in Contested Waters Sarah King, 2013-12-31 After the Supreme Court of Canada's 1999 Marshall decision recognized Mi'kmaq fishers treaty right to fish the fishers entered the inshore lobster fishery across Atlantic Canada At Burnt Church Esgenoopetitj New Brunswick the Mi'kmaq fishery provoked violent confrontations with neighbours and the Canadian government Over the next two years boats cottages and a sacred grove were burned people were shot at and beaten boats rammed and sunk roads barricaded and the local wharf occupied Based on 12 months of ethnographic field work in Burnt Church Esgenoopetitj Fishing in Contested Waters explores the origins of this dispute and the beliefs and experiences that motivated the locals involved in it Weaving the perspectives of Native and non Native people together Sarah J King examines the community as a contested place simultaneously Mi'kmaq and Canadian Drawing on philosophy and indigenous environmental and religious studies Fishing in Contested Waters demonstrates the deep roots of contemporary conflicts over rights sovereignty conservation and identity Critical Issues in Anti-racist Research Methodologies George Jerry Sefa Dei, Gurpreet Singh Johal, 2005 Anti racism studies have blossomed over the years with scholarship and political work reinforcing each other to cement anti racist change But how do we understand anti racist research How is anti racist research methodology different from other methods of research investigation What are the principles of anti racism research This edited collection attempts to provide some answers by bringing together works that examine the perils and desires of anti racist research with a particular focus on the notion of difference and a serious consideration of the race gender class and sexuality intersections implications of educational research Warrior Life Pamela Palmater, 2020-10-28T00:00:00Z In a moment where unlawful pipelines are built on Indigenous territories the RCMP make illegal arrests of land defenders on unceded lands and anti Indigenous racism permeates on social media the government lie that is reconciliation is exposed Renowned lawyer author speaker and activist Pamela Palmater returns to wade through media headlines and government propaganda and get to heart of key issues lost in the noise Warrior Life Indigenous Resistance and Resurgence is the second collection of writings by Palmater In keeping with her previous works numerous op eds media commentaries YouTube channel videos and podcasts Palmater s work is fiercely anti colonial anti racist and more crucial than ever before Palmater addresses a range of Indigenous issues empty political promises ongoing racism sexualized genocide government lawlessness and the lie that is reconciliation and makes the complex political and legal implications accessible to the public From one of the most important inspiring and fearless voices in Indigenous rights decolonization Canadian politics social justice earth justice and beyond Warrior Life is an unflinching critique of the colonial project that is Canada and a rallying cry for Indigenous peoples and allies alike to forge a path toward a decolonial future through resistance and resurgence

Braided Learning Susan D. Dion, 2022-06-01 The Truth and Reconciliation Commission and Indigenous activism have made many Canadians uncomfortably aware of how little they know about First Nations Métis and Inuit peoples In Braided Learning Lenape Potawatomi scholar and educator Susan Dion shares her approach to learning and teaching about Indigenous histories and perspectives Métis leader Louis Riel illuminated the connection between creativity and identity in his declaration My people will sleep for a hundred years but when they awake it will be the artists who give them their spirits back Using the power of stories and artwork Dion offers respectful ways to address challenging topics including settler colonialism treaties the Indian Act residential schools the Sixties Scoop and the drive for self determination Braided Learning draws on Indigenous knowledge to make sense of a difficult past decode unjust conditions in the present and work toward a more equitable future

118 Days (Canadian Edition) Tricia Gates Brown, 2008-05-19 On November 26 2005 Christian Peacemaker Teams CPT members Tom Fox and Jim Loney along with delegation members Norman Kember and Harmeet Sooden were kidnapped in Iraq Tom Fox was killed on March 9 2006 Jim Norman and Harmeet were freed two weeks later on March 23 after 118 days of captivity The kidnapping of these four men was like a rock thrown into a pond This book describes the ripples on the water the impact and results of that rock Ripples in the lives of CPT teams and the communities in which they work Ripples among families and friends of those taken Ripples across the world in faith communities prisons in the media and among their audiences and in the lives of the four men Dozens of Muslim leaders who knew CPT s peacemaking work courageously called for the release of the CPT delegation Christian leaders in turn called for justice for the 14 000 Iraqis held by Multinational Forces in Iraq without charges or access to their families

We Were Not The Savages, First Nations History, 4th ed. Daniel N. Paul, 2022-09-30T00:00:00Z The title of this book We Were Not the Savages speaks to the truth of what happened when Europeans invaded Mi kmaq lands in the 17th century Prior to the European invasion the Mi kmaq lived healthy lives and for thousands of years had lived in harmony with nature in the land they called Mi kma ki This book sets the record straight When the Europeans arrived they were welcomed and sustained by the Mi kmaq Over the next three centuries their language their culture their way of life were systematically ravaged by the newcomers to whom they had extended human kindness The murderous savagery of British scalp proclamations starvation malnutrition and Canada's Indian residential and day schools all but wiped out the Mi kmaq Yet the Mi kmaq survived and today stand defending the land the water and nature's bounty from the European way of life which threatens the natural world we live in and need to survive Since the first edition was published in 1993 Daniel Paul's ongoing research confronts the mainstream record of Canadian settler colonialism and reveals that the mistreatment of Indigenous Peoples is not confined to the past In this 4th edition the author shares his research which catalogues not only the historical tragedy but the ongoing attempts to silence the Mi kmaq and other Indigenous Peoples Paul's work continues to give the Mi kmaq a voice that must be heard

Tradition, Solidarity and Empowerment: The Native Discourse in Canada Steffi Retzlaff, 2012-01-31 This study represents a significant step towards understanding an important social phenomenon in Canada at the end of the twentieth and beginning of the twenty first century Throughout much of the twentieth century the life of virtually all Aboriginal people had been marked by a set of policies directed from Ottawa These had contributed to undermining both their traditional cultures and also the familial bonds vital for the development of a positive self image and a healthy relationship with other members of society as also with society as a whole The negative impact of such policies is now very widely recognised and documented The study does not set out to shed further light on this set of causes and effects What it does do successfully is investigate a number of the linguistic strategies based partly on aboriginal discursive models partly on positive presentation of a range of topics handled very differently in Euro Canadian media and partly on the propagation and consistent use of key items of terminology some of which have begun to enter at least some of the Euro Canadian media and strands of political discourse Prof Robert Gould Carleton University Ottawa The analytical framework employed in this study is Critical Discourse Analysis CDA CDA is said to focus on relevant social cultural and political problems and processes Accordingly its task is both deconstructive and constructive However the emphasis of research in CDA is mainly on problems and the deconstructive moment which aims at revealing hidden and not so hidden linguistic strategies and how dominant discourses are appropriated or naturalized The analysis presented in this book runs counter to this generally employed CDA practice It pays attention to constructive moments The focus is on counter discourses as they are used by Aboriginal people in Canada to resist ingrained hegemonic practices to build and develop new power relations as well as social and political identities

MultiCultural Review ,2003 Civil Society and Social Movements in Food System Governance Peter Andrée, Jill K. Clark, Charles Z. Levkoe, Kristen Lowitt, 2019-01-30 This book offers insights into the governance of contemporary food systems and their ongoing transformation by social movements As global food systems face multiple threats and challenges there is an opportunity for social movements and civil society to play a more active role in building social justice and ecological sustainability Drawing on case studies from Canada the United States Europe and New Zealand this edited collection showcases promising ways forward for civil society actors to engage in governance The authors address topics including the variety of forms that governance engagement takes from multi stakeholderism to co governance to polycentrism self governance the values and power dynamics that underpin these different types of governance processes effective approaches for achieving desired values and goals and the broader relationships and networks that may be activated to support change By examining and comparing a variety of governance innovations at a range of scales the book offers insights for those considering contemporary food systems and their ongoing transformation It is suitable for food studies students and researchers within geography environmental studies anthropology policy studies planning health sciences and sociology and will also be of interest to policy makers and civil society organisations with a focus on food systems The Open Access version of this book available at <http://www.tandfebooks.com/doi/view/10.4324/9780429503597> has been made available under a Creative Commons Attribution Non Commercial No Derivatives 4.0 license
