

My Summer

"Ring, ring, ring!" I jumped for joy at the sound of the school bell on the last day of school. I couldn't wait for school to be out because I knew I was going to have an amazing summer!

First of all, I went to Arizona to visit my Aunt Cindy. For two weeks, I had fun with my favorite aunt. When she saw me, she said, "How's my favorite niece?" I replied, "I'm your only niece!" We had a great time shopping, swimming, and baking cookies. It's always great to visit my Aunt Cindy.

After I got back home, I stayed up late many nights and watched a lot of movies. I like scary movies, but my mom always says, "Scary movies keep you up at night!" She won't let me watch them during the school year. However, she lets me watch some scary movies in the summer since I don't have to get up for school. Staying up late is awesome!

Finally, I did my favorite activity of all. I worked on my crafty scrapbooking projects. There were boxes of pictures just waiting for me to turn them into cute scrapbook pages. I missed my friends from school, so I enjoyed creating colorful pages to help me remember all the fun we had. I made some fantastic scrapbook pages!

I like school, but I love summer! It's really the best time of the year. I wish it would never end!

The Narrative Writing Toolkit Sean Ruday, 2016-03-31 In order for students to write effective narratives they need to read good narratives. In this practical book you will find out how to use mentor texts to make narrative writing instruction more meaningful, authentic, and successful. Author Sean Ruday demonstrates how you can teach elementary and middle school students to analyze the qualities of effective narratives and then help them think of those qualities as tools to improve their own writing. You will learn how to introduce your students to the key features of a successful narrative such as engaging the reader, organizing an event sequence, and crafting a strong conclusion. Assess students writing by evaluating the specific attributes of an effective narrative. Make narrative writing an interactive student driven exercise in which students pursue their own writing projects. Use mentor texts to help students learn the core concepts of narrative writing and apply those skills across the curriculum. Encourage students to incorporate technology and multimedia as they craft their narratives. The book is filled with examples and templates you can bring back to the classroom immediately, as well as an annotated bibliography with mentor text suggestions and links to the Common Core. You will also find a study guide that will help you use this book for professional development with colleagues. Bonus! Blank templates of the handouts are available as printable eResources on our website <http://www.routledge.com>. 9781138924390

NAEP Scoring of Fourth-grade Narrative Writing, 2000 Boys and Literacy Trisha Maynard, 2004-11-23 In recent years the issue of boys and literacy, namely that they are worse at it compared to girls, has become a key area of interest to all those concerned with the education of our children. This book highlights the key factors causing this divide and discusses the implementation of new strategies to overcome it, which have been the result of extensive qualitative research made by the author. Trisha Maynard reports case study findings of a primary school whose staff wanted to explore and improve boys attitudes towards and attainment in literacy, and in particular their difficulties with writing. The book highlights issues concerning the reading and writing of stories, what teachers understand by good story writing, and the importance of teachers exploring boys and girls difficulties with literacy by themselves. It provides significant insight into boys difficulties with writing, as well as informing teachers how to find out about children's attainment.
