Anita Dowsing

The Loop By Nicholas Evans:

The Loop Nicholas Evans,1998 A conflict breaks out between cattle ranchers and government agents in Montana over the killing of wolves a protected species On the positive side this is how Luke Calder son of the leading rancher meets and falls in love with Helen Ross a government biologist By the author of The Horse Whisperer Loop, Nicholas Evans

The Gift of Self in Marriage Anita Dowsing,2007 One of the most striking features of life in the Catholic Church today is the ever widening gap between its official teaching on marriage and sexual morality and the practice of most of its lay members The book seeks to bridge this gap in two ways It considers some of the tacit assumptions about marriage and sexual morality in today s society since these affect Catholics as much as everybody else It also considers the Church s teaching in some of these areas and explores new ways of putting it across so that it can make sense to ordinary lay Catholics In doing so the author draws on contemporary writing as well as bringing her own reflections and experience of living the Church s teaching to bear on the subject The book is aimed at married couples those considering marriage as well as clergy and those involved in marriage preparation and counselling Anita Dowsing was born in Copenhagen in 1944 She was brought up as a member of Denmark s tiny Catholic community but has spent most of her adult life in the United Kingdom She has an M A in English Language and Literature from Copenhagen University and a Ph D in Old English from the University of Wales Anita Dowsing has spent most of her working life in Adult Religious Education in the Diocese of East Anglia as Co ordinator of the Norwich Deanery Team a member of the Diocesan Religious Education Commission and currently the Diocesan Marriage and Family Life Commission She was a member of the East Anglia Steering Group for the Bishops Conference of England and Wales Listening 2004 project listening to family experience in every diocese and was one of the facilitators at the Bishops Conference Working Group which produced resource material on marriage and family life for parish use She is married with an adult daughter The Reading Groups Book Jenny Hartley,Sarah Turvey,2001

You Duped Me, O Lord Hugh Duffy,2025-06-12 In this engaging memoir Father Hugh Duffy chronicles his more than fifty year journey as a Catholic priest revealing the complex and often painful struggle between his vocation to serve the gospel and navigating the institutional church From his early days establishing charitable programs in Ireland to his later years visiting parishes across America he unflinchingly examines how the church s institutional structure can often work against its own mission to maintain gospel values Through vivid personal accounts he reveals his battles against corruption false accusations and abuse of power while retaining his unwavering commitment to serve those in need The title drawn from the prophet Jeremiah s lament reflects Duffy s own wrestling with a calling that led him along unexpected and challenging paths This is not merely a critique but rather a heartfelt plea for reform and renewal Written with both candor and compassion this memoir offers an insider s perspective on the Catholic Church s internal conflicts while pointing forward toward hope for its future The story speaks to anyone who has ever found themselves caught between institutional power and their deepest convictions reminding readers that true service requires courage to stand firm in the face of opposition The Book Publishing Industry Albert N. Greco, Jim Milliot, Robert M. Wharton, 2013-07-31 This volume provides an innovative and detailed overview of the book publishing industry including details about the business processes in editorial marketing and production The work explores the complex issues that occur every day in the publishing industry Time Briton Hadden, Henry R. Imagine yourself as one Getting Your Book Published For Dummies is your complete guide to realizing whatever gem of an idea you've been carrying with you. If you've ever thought this would make a really good book, be it the next great American novel or a guide to naming babies, here's your chance to put pen to paper and find out. Written from both sides of the editor's desk by a widely published writer and a HarperCollins veteran publisher, this guide puts in your hand the advice you need to: Pick an idea, Approach the publisher, Craft proposals and queries, Work with agents or act as your own, Self-publish, Negotiate a contract, Create the actual book, Sell your published book. Full of examples, proposals, query letters, and war stories drawn from the author's extensive experience, Getting Your Book Published For Dummies shows you how to clear all the hurdles faced by today's writers, freeing up precious time for you to refine your manuscript. You'll get the inside scoop on: Titling your book, Major publishers, smaller houses, niche publishers, university presses, and spiritual and religious publishers, The 12 elements of a successful nonfiction proposal, How editors read queries, Submitting fiction, Publishing outside the box, And much more. Getting Your Book Published For Dummies is the clear A-Z handbook that makes the entire process plain and practicable. You don't need to be a celebrity. You don't need to be some kind of publishing insider. All you need to do is write.

Wolf Mountains Karen R. Jones, 2002 This book documents the changing tenets of landscape preservation and species protection in preserves of the United States and Canada through a capacious study of canine history. BOOK JACKET Ski Trails and Wildlife Eric Burr, 2008 Snow sports are usually the first step to learning about snow country wildlife, which is only as safe as knowledgeable people want it to be. Unfortunately, knowledge is too often lacking, and skiing is perceived as detrimental to wildlife. Reality is that skiing in all its many forms, from ski lift resorts to far-flung Scandinavian style ski touring, holds the keys to wildlife conservation and restoration. No amount of litigation can change this basic fact of life, although the Mineral King Case from the Supreme Court of the United States certainly changed the legal landscape for all environmental litigation. Mineral King's near miss at becoming another ski lift avalanche disaster area preceded Early Winters, another almost ski lift area which shares the honor of being a Supreme Court case and is the last chapter of this book. Olympic National Park is the other ski history explored, so that the National Parks are given equal emphasis with America's National Forests and Canada's Crown Lands. An extensive bibliography also includes many electronically available sources. The language is not technical, and no prior experience with either skiing or wildlife is presumed. The book is primarily written for both skiing and wildlife enthusiasts who may not know much about each other. It is intended as a peace offering to hopefully prevent future ski wars and unnecessary trips through the legal system. That effort could be better spent restoring wildlife and the life support system of our circumpolar boreal forest. Trinity Leon Uris, 1977 Ever since the publication of Battle Cry more than thirty years ago, Leon Uris has continued to write bestselling novels. Each displays all of the author's skill, for he is a writer at his best when the subject seems almost too big to handle. One of the most popular storytellers of the twentieth century, more than 5,500,000 copies of his novels have been sold in Corgi alone. In Trinity, he writes passionately about the tragedy of Ireland from the famine of the 1840s to the Easter Rising of 1916 a powerful and stirring novel about the loves and hates the defeats and triumphs of three families a terrible and beautiful drama spanning more than half a century A Song in the Morning Gerald Seymour, 1999 Jeez Curwen a British undercover agent in South Africa reporting on the African National Congress has received the death penalty for his part in a job in which he should never have been involved He is incarcerated in the maximum security jail outside Pretoria awaiting execution By the time his son Jack abandoned by Jeez 25 years ago discovers that the British government has washed its hands of his father s case Jeez has only three weeks to live But Jack though young and untried is determined to see the father he has never known and to set him free
