landslide has closed the Korowai Pass on New Zealand's South Island cutting off the town of Thorndike and leaving a sizable farm abandoned. The disaster has created an opportunity for Birnam Wood, a guerrilla gardening collective that plants crops wherever no one will notice. For Mira, Birnam Wood's founder occupying the farm at Thorndike would mean a shot at solvency at last. But Mira is not the only one interested in Thorndike. The enigmatic American billionaire Robert Lemoine has snatched it up to build his end times bunker, or so he tells Mira when he catches her on the property. Intrigued by Mira and Birnam Wood, he makes them an offer that would set them up for the long term. But can they trust him? And as their ideals and ideologies are tested, can they trust one another? Birnam Wood is Shakespearean in its drama, Austenian in its wit, and like both influences, fascinated by what makes us who we are. A brilliantly constructed consideration of intentions, actions, and consequences, it is a mesmerizing, unflinching consideration of the human impulse to ensure our own survival. The Rehearsal Eleanor Catton, 2010. A dazzlingly assured and bold novel revolving around a school sex scandal. An exhilarating and provocative novel about the unsimple mess of human desire at once a tender evocation of its young protagonists and a shrewd expose of emotional compromise. Birnam Wood Eleanor Catton, 2023-03-02. NAMED AS ONE OF GRANTA MAGAZINE'S BEST OF YOUNG BRITISH NOVELISTS 2023. FINALIST FOR THE ORWELL PRIZE FOR POLITICAL FICTION 2023. FROM THE WINNER OF THE BOOKER PRIZE. Birnam Wood is on the move. Five years ago, Mira Bunting founded a guerrilla gardening group, Birnam Wood. An undeclared, unregulated, sometimes criminal, sometimes philanthropic gathering of friends, this activist collective plants crops wherever no one will notice, on the sides of roads, in forgotten parks, and neglected backyards. For years, the group has struggled to break even. Then Mira stumbles on an answer, a way to finally set the group up for the long term. A landslide has closed the Korowai Pass, cutting off the town of Thorndike. Natural disaster has created an opportunity, a sizable farm seemingly abandoned. But Mira is not the only one interested in Thorndike. Robert Lemoine, the enigmatic American billionaire, has snatched it up to build his end times bunker, or so he tells Mira when he catches her on the property. Intrigued by Mira, Birnam Wood, and their entrepreneurial spirit, he suggests they work this land. But can they trust him? And as their ideals and ideologies are tested, can they trust each other? A gripping psychological thriller from the Booker Prize-winning author of The Luminaries, Birnam Wood is Shakespearean in its wit, drama, and immersion in character. A brilliantly constructed consideration of intentions, actions, and consequences, it is an unflinching examination of the human impulse to ensure our own survival. Pages of Wisdom SREEKUMAR V T, 2025-02-25. A History of New Zealand Women Barbara Brookes, 2016-02-15 What would a history of New Zealand look like that rejected Thomas Carlyle's definition of history as the biography of great men and focused instead on the experiences of women One that shifted the angle of vision and examined the stages of this country's development from the points of view of wives daughters mothers grandmothers sisters and aunts That considered their lives as distinct from though often unwillingly influenced by those of history's great men In her groundbreaking History of New Zealand Women Barbara Brookes provides just such a history This is more than an account of women in New Zealand from those who arrived on the first waka to the Grammy and Man Booker Prize winning young women of the current decade It is a comprehensive history of New Zealand seen through a female lens Brookes argues that while European men erected the political scaffolding to create a small nation women created the infrastructure necessary for colonial society to succeed Concepts of home marriage and family brought by settler women and integral to the developing state transformed the lives of M ori women The small scale of New Zealand society facilitated rapid change so that by the twenty first century women are no longer defined by family contexts In her long awaited book Barbara Brookes traces the factors that drove that change Her lively narrative draws on a wide variety of sources to map the importance in women s lives not just of legal and economic changes but of smaller joys such as the arrival of a piano from England or the freedom of riding a bicycle

Popular Postcolonialisms Nadia Atia, Kate Houlden, 2018-07-04 Drawing together the insights of postcolonial scholarship and cultural studies Popular Postcolonialisms questions the place of the popular in the postcolonial paradigm Multidisciplinary in focus this collection explores the extent to which popular forms are infused with colonial logics and whether they can be employed by those advocating for change. It considers a range of fiction, film, and non-hegemonic cultural forms engaging with topics such as environmental change, language activism, and cultural imperialism alongside analysis of figures like Tarzan and Frankenstein. Building on the work of cultural theorists, it asks whether the popular is actually where elite conceptions of the world may best be challenged. It also addresses middlebrow cultural production which has tended to be seen as antithetical to radical traditions, asking whether this might in fact form an unlikely realm from which to question, critique, or challenge colonial tropes. Examining the ways in which the imprint of colonial history is in evidence, interrogated, mythologized, or sublimated within popular cultural production, this book raises a series of speculative questions exploring the interrelation of the popular and the postcolonial.
