Steve Gerber Jason Sacks, Eric Hoffman, Dominick Grace, 2019-06-27 Steve Gerber 1947 2008 is among the most significant comics writers of the modern era Best known for his magnum opus Howard the Duck he also wrote influential series such as Man Thing Omega the Unknown The Phantom Zone and Hard Time expressing a combination of intelligence and empathy rare in American comics Gerber rose to prominence during the 1970s His work for Marvel Comics during that era helped revitalize several increasingly clichéd generic conventions of superhero horror and funny animal comics by inserting satire psychological complexity and existential absurdism Gerber's scripts were also often socially conscious confronting among other things capitalism environmentalism political corruption and censorship His critique also extended into the personal sphere addressing such taboo topics as domestic violence racism inequality and poverty This volume follows Gerber's career through a range of interviews beginning with his height during the 1970s and ending with an interview with Michael Eury just before Gerber's death in 2008 Among the pieces featured is a 1976 interview with Mark Lerer originally published in the low circulation fanzine Pittsburgh Fan Forum where Gerber looks back on his work for Marvel during the early to mid 1970s his most prolific period This volume concludes with selections from Gerber's dialogue with his readers and admirers in online forums and a Gerber based Yahoo Group wherein he candidly discusses his many projects over the years Gerber's unique voice in comics has established his legacy Indeed his contribution earned him a posthumous induction into the Will Eisner Comic Book Hall of Fame
