Debits and Credits Rudyard Kipling, 2024-01-05 Excerpt It is narrated and God knows best the true state of the case by Abu Ali Jafir Bin Yakub ulisfahani that when in His determinate Will The Benefactor had decided to create the Greatest Substitute Adam He despatched as is known the faithful and the excellent Archangel Jibrail to gather from Earth clays loams and sands endowed with various colours and attributes necessary for the substance of our pure Forefather s body Receiving the Command and reaching the place Jibrail put forth his hand to take them but Earth shook and lamented and supplicated him Then said Jibrail Lie still and rejoice for out of thee He will create that than which there is no handsomer thing to wit a Successor and a Wearer of the Diadem over thee through the ages Earth said I adjure thee to abstain from thy purpose lest evil and condemnation of that person who is created out of me should later overtake him and the Abiding sorrow be loosed upon my head I have no power to resist the Will of the Most High but I take refuge with Allah from thee So Jibrail was moved by the lamentations and helplessness of Earth and returned to the Vestibule of the Glory with an empty hand

Abaft the Funnel Rudyard Kipling, 2024-01-05 Excerpt The measure of a man s popularity is not always or indeed seldom the measure of his intrinsic worth So when the earlier work of any writer is gathered together in more enduring form catering to the enthusiasm of his readers in his maturer years there is always a suspicion that the venture is purely a commercial one without literary justification Fortunately these stories of Mr Kipling s form their own best excuse for this their first appearance together in book form Not merely because in them may be traced the origin of that style and subject matter that later made their author famous but because the stories are in themselves worth while worth writing worth reading The Likes o Us is as true to the type as any of the immortal Mulvaney stories the beginning of New Brooms is as succinctly fine as any prose Mr Kipling ever wrote for searching out and presenting such splendid pieces of fiction as Sleipner late Thurinda and A Little More Beef to a public larger than their original one in India no apology is necessary

Rewards and Fairies Rudyard Kipling, 2015-12-27 Joseph Rudyard Kipling born 30 December 1865 18 January 1936 was an eng short story writer poet and novelist He wrote tales and poems of British soldiers in India and stories for children He was born in Bombay in the Bombay Presidency of British India and was taken by his family to England when he was five years old Rewards and Fairies is a historical fantasy book by Rudyard Kipling published in 1910 The book consists of a series of short stories set in historical times with a linking contemporary narrative Dan and Una are two children living in the Weald of Sussex in the area of Kipling s own home Bateman s They have encountered Puck and he magically conjures up real and fictional individuals from Sussex s past to tell the children some aspect of its history and prehistory though the episodes are not always historically accurate Another recurring character is Old Hobden who represents the continuity of the inhabitants of the land His ancestors sometimes appear in the stories and seem very much like him Some stories contain elements of the supernatural as well as history

Excerpt from Wikipedia Letters of Marque Rudyard Kipling, 2024-01-05 Excerpt Except for those who under compulsion of a sick certificate are flying Bombaywards it is good for every man to see some little of the great Indian Empire and the strange folk who move about it It is good to escape for a time from the House of Rimmon be it office or cutchery and to go abroad under no more exacting master than personal inclination and with no more definite plan of travel than has the horse escaped from pasture free upon the country side The first result of such freedom is extreme bewilderment and the second reduces the freed to a state of mind which for his sins must be the normal portion of the Globe Trotter the man who does kingdoms in days and writes books upon them in weeks And this desperate facility is not as strange as it seems By the 8 time that an Englishman has come by sea and rail via America Japan Singapore and Ceylon to India he can these eyes have seen him do so master in five minutes the intricacies of the Indian Bradshaw and tell an old resident exactly how and where the trains run Can we wonder that the intoxication of success in hasty assimilation should make him overbold and that he should try to grasp but a full account of the insolent Globe Trotter must be reserved He is worthy of a book Given absolute freedom for a month the mind as I have said fails to take in the situation and after much debate contents itself with following in old and well beaten ways paths that we in India have no time to tread but must leave to the country cousin who wears his pagri tail fashion down his back and says cabman to the driver of the ticca ghari

Sea Warfare Rudyard Kipling, 2016-09-18 These pieces were written as journalism in response to a request by the Admiralty as the British public realised that World War I certainly was not going to be over by Christmas and wanted to know what the Navy the silent service on which so much money had been spent in the decade before the war was doing The end of the Great War against Napoleonic France had left Great Britain undoubted mistress of the oceans and the Royal Navy was the largest in the world This situation remained unchanged until 1914 but the rising power of a unified Germany not merely economic but in imperial ambitions had created a perceived threat from the mid 1890s onwards
