Architect's Legal Handbook Anthony Speaight KC, Matthew Thorne, 2025-04-16 Celebrating 50 years since it was first published the Architect's Legal Handbook has been the most widely used reference on the law for practicing architects and the established textbook on law for architectural students Since the last edition of this book in 2021 unprecedented change has occurred in the construction sector The withdrawal of the United Kingdom from the European Union has ushered in changes to legislation in a wide range of areas The tragic fire at Grenfell Tower in June 2017 and the deficiencies in design construction and regulation within the sector that were revealed as a result have given rise to major changes in the way projects are now carried out An overhaul of the Building Regulations and the creation of a new Building Safety Regulator are only some of the ways in which the landscape has changed This eleventh edition features all the latest developments in the law which affect an architect's work as well as providing comprehensive coverage of relevant UK law topics Key highlights of this edition include A new chapter has been added to cover the statutory framework for building safety Chapter 9 which is complemented by a wholly updated chapter on construction regulation in England and Wales Chapter 10 The chapter on public procurement law Chapter 14 has also been entirely rewritten to focus on the Public Procurement Act 2023 and related regulations following Brexit New suites of standard contract forms have since the last edition been issued These have seen substantial changes with chapters on JCT 2024 Chapter 18 and the latest NEC4 forms Chapter 19 together with wider updates to the chapters on FIDIC Chapter 20 and other forms of contract Chapter 21 A revised chapter on architects contracts with clients covering the RIBA Professional Services Contract 2024 Chapter 37 A new section on novations in the chapter on the English Law of Contract Chapter 2 The Architect's Legal Handbook is the essential legal reference work for all architects and students of architecture

The Building Regulations 2000 Stationery Office, 2010-06-04 The new Part L2B will require a 25% improvement on the 2006 standards for every new home An aggregate approach for improvements of new non domestic buildings will deliver an improvement of 25% overall rather than for each individual building This is due to the fact that there is a greater variety amongst non domestic buildings and some will be much easier than others to make efficient The changes to Part L will increase the minimum levels of energy efficiency for building fabric and services so that CO2 targets cannot be achieved through renewables alone This reflects the principles of reducing overall demand for energy The measures will also be relevant when people elect to carry out work to existing buildings including extensions and conversions fabric renovations replacement windows and boilers This Approved Document L2B 2010 comes into force October 2010 in support of the Building Regulations 2000 The Approved Documents provide technical guidance on ways of complying with the Building Regulations They are continuously revised in line with new legislations APPROVED DOCUMENT J HM GOVERNMENT.,2022 Approved Document J Stationery Office,2006-06-09 This TSO version of the guidance to approved document J supersedes the ODPM version ISBN 0117524433 now no longer available This publication supports The Building Regulations 2000 Approved document J Combustion appliances and fuel storage systems 2002 ed ISBN 0117036420 Text prepared by the Office of the Deputy Prime Minister ODPM in collaboration with the British Flue and Chimney Manufacturers Association BFCMA and other organizations Amendments to this document can be obtained by logging on to the BFCMA web site at <http://www.feta.co.uk/bfcma> Architect's Legal Pocket Book Matthew Cousins,2015-08-14 A little book that s big on information the Architect s Legal Pocket Book is the definitive reference on legal issues for architects and architectural students This handy pocket guide covers key legal principles which will help you to quickly understand the law and where to go for further information Now in a fully updated new edition this bestselling book covers a wide range of subjects focused on the UK including building legislation negligence liability planning policy and development listed buildings party wall legislation and rights of light This edition also contains greater coverage of contracts including the RIBA contracts dispute resolution and legal issues in professional practice Illustrated with clear diagrams and featuring key cases this is an invaluable source of practical information and a comprehensive guide of the current law for architects It is a book no architect should be without Architect's Pocket Book Jonathan Hetreed,Ann Ross,Charlotte Baden-Powell,2023-05-15 This handy pocket book brings together a wealth of useful information that architects need on a daily basis on site or in the studio It provides clear guidance and invaluable detail on a wide range of issues from planning policy through environmental design to complying with Building Regulations from structural and services matters to materials characteristics and detailing This sixth edition includes the updating of regulations standards and sources across a wide range of topics with a particular focus on sustainability issues Compact and easy to use the Architect s Pocket Book has sold well over 100 000 copies to the nation s architects architecture students designers and construction professionals who do not have an architectural background but need to understand the basics fast This is the famous little blue book that you can t afford to be without The Building Regulations 2000 Stationery Office (Great Britain),2010 Building Regulations 2000 Building Regulations in Brief Ray Tricker,Samantha Alford,2022-05-30 This tenth edition of the most popular and trusted guide reflects all the latest amendments to the Building Regulations planning permission and the Approved Documents in England
