Federal Communications Commission, 2016 Hope is the Thing B. J. Hollars, 2021-09-14 In March 2020 as a pandemic began to ravage our world writer and professor B. J. Hollars started a collaborative writing project to bridge the emotional challenges created by our physical distancing Drawing upon Emily Dickinson's famous poem Hope is the thing with feathers Hollars called on Wisconsinites to reflect on their own glimpses of hope in the era of COVID-19 The call resulted in an avalanche of submissions each reflecting on hope's ability to persist and flourish even in the darkest times As the one hundred essays and poems gathered here demonstrate hope comes in many forms a dad dance a birth plan an unblemished banana a visit from a neighborhood dog the revival of an old tradition empathy The contributors are racially geographically and culturally diverse representing a rough cross section of Wisconsin voices from truck driver to poet laureate from middle school student to octogenarian from small business owner to seasoned writer The result is a book length exploration of the depth and range of hope experienced in times of crisis as well as an important record of what Wisconsinites were facing and feeling through these historic times
