Miseducating for the Global Economy Gerald Coles,2018-06-26 Reveals that behind the going concern for global economy education lies capitalism s indifference to human values to a fair distribution of resources to its radical restructuring of workplaces with an attendant intensification of work effort and to the genuine well being of workers and their families Coles provides a real education about the twenty first century global economy and what corporations are doing to prevent our learning about it He describes the intellectually narrow and morally crippling effects of the corporate control of education how the imperative for profit maximizes the misunderstanding of communities nations and the environment even as it minimizes aesthetic appreciation cultural expression compassion itself But it is by understanding all this Coles argues that real change can begin Adapted from publisher description Global Environmental Politics Jean-Frédéric

Morin,Amandine Orsini,Sikina Jinnah,2020 Global Environmental Politics provides a fully up to date and comprehensive introduction to the most important issues dominating this fast moving field Going beyond the issue of climate change the textbook also introduces students to the pressing issues of desertification trade in hazardous waste biodiversity protection whaling acid rain ozone depletion water consumption and over fishing Importantly the authors pay particular attention to the interactions between environmental politics and other governance issues such as gender trade development health agriculture and security Diverse Early Childhood Education Policies and Practices Amita Gupta,2014-04-29 Diverse Early Childhood Education Policies and Practices explores issues in early childhood education and teacher preparation in five Asian countries India Singapore China Sri Lanka and the Maldives Some observed classrooms in these countries reflect influences that are simultaneously indigenous and colonial local and global By highlighting the diverse and often hybrid classroom pedagogies at work in these 21st century Asian classrooms the discussions in this book take into consideration the influence of globalization on local policies and practices and the challenge educators face when they are expected to reconcile different and sometimes conflicting cultural and pedagogical world views Through a research driven analysis of key issues such as recent revisions to national early childhood education policies perceptions on play based and child centered pedagogy curriculum and learning materials and an emphasis on the teaching of values this book illuminates the diversity of the observed classrooms as well as current trends in early childhood education in parts of Asia The cross national perspective serves to expand and diversify the global discourse of early childhood education and teacher education
