The Business of Higher Institutional Education: Integrating Academic Freedom, Pedagogical Approaches and Constitutionalism Wesahl

Domingo, Michele van Eck, 2024-12-31 Higher education is facing increasing challenges Economic and financial pressures have heightened the strain on the sustainability of higher education institutions HEIs These pressures have prompted a shift toward adopting business models and commercial practices to maintain institutional operations While these changes have enabled some innovations they have also placed traditional academic dynamics under significant pressure After all the commercialisation of HEIs comes with its own challenges and has influenced directly and indirectly academic freedom constitutional values and established approaches to teaching learning and research This co edited book explores the growing tension between academic freedom and the commercial priorities of HEIs highlighting the challenge of balancing financial sustainability with higher education s function of being centres of knowledge innovation and social change Through an analysis of selected legal academic and operational dimensions this book examines how HEIs can navigate these demands while maintaining their core identity Organised around three key themes the first focuses on the business and commercial aspects of HEIs analysing how these influence institutional operations Topics under this theme include issues such as corruption procurement practices the use of demand guarantees in construction contracts and the legal nature of the student university relationship The second theme examines how the business and commercial focus of HEIs can influence academic freedom Topics under this theme includes an analysis of the rights of academics to freedom of expression and their ability to critique their employers the implications of Ghana s proposed Anti LGBTQ Bill on academic freedom and the effects of disciplinary procedures on academic freedom in Zimbabwean state universities The third theme addresses the impact of commercialisation on teaching learning and pedagogical approaches within HEIs Topics under this theme include the challenges faced by students with disabilities and the role of HEIs in breaking down barriers to inclusion the influence of HEI structures on the decolonisation of international law and the ways in which HEIs responded to the effects of Covid 19 on first year law students at the University of Johannesburg The academic contribution in this book highlights that HEIs serve a critical social function that goes beyond profit making or financial viability This social responsibility rooted in knowledge creation and societal advancement should remain the primary focus Although commercialisation is an unavoidable reality HEIs should ultimately prioritise their social mandate over profit driven objectives ensuring that their core mission is not overshadowed by commercial imperatives

Disability and Social Media Katie Ellis, Mike Kent, 2016-11-10 Social media is popularly seen as an important media for people with disability in terms of communication exchange and activism These sites potentially increase both employment and leisure opportunities for one of the most traditionally isolated groups in society However the offline inaccessible environment has to a certain degree been replicated online and particularly in social networking sites Social media is becoming an increasingly important part of our lives yet the impact on people with disabilities has gone largely unscrutinised Similarly while social media and disability are often both observed through a focus on the Western developed and English speaking world different global perspectives are often overlooked This collection explores the opportunities and challenges social media represents for the social inclusion of people with disabilities from a variety of different global perspectives that include Africa Arabia and Asia along with European American and Australasian perspectives and experiences Global Perspectives on Adult Education A. Abdi, Dip Kapoor, 2008-12-22 This book demonstrates how processes of globalization economic cultural socio political are creating new possibilities and inequities and are thereby creating corresponding roles for adult education and learning in the South Africa Asia South America that are embedded in multiple political economic and cultural projects for social change Designing Worlds Kjetil Fallan, Grace Lees-Maffei, 2016-06 From consumer products to architecture to advertising to digital technology design is an undeniably global phenomenon Yet despite their professed transnational perspective historical studies of design have all too often succumbed to a bias toward Western industrialized nations This diverse but rigorously curated collection recalibrates our understanding of design history reassessing regional and national cultures while situating them within an international context Here contributors from five continents offer nuanced studies that range from South Africa to the Czech Republic all the while sensitive to the complexities of local variation and the role of nation states in identity construction Africa in a Changing Global Environment Mutanga, Shingirirai Savious, Simelane, Thokozani, Pophiwa, Nedson, 2013-10-20 Africa is one continent severely affected by the ravaging effects of global environment change yet it is least responsible for this The continent's rural and urban poor are particularly vulnerable to reduced agricultural production worsening food security increased incidence of both flooding and drought spreading of disease and heightening risk of conflict over scarce land and water resources As such this timely book consisting of chapters authored by scholars from multidisciplinary backgrounds provides the reader a variety of contexts from which to understand the impacts of global environmental change and how affected African communities are adapting and mitigating the scourge In addition it discusses different models for mitigation and adaptation applicable to local contexts Don't Listen To What I'm About To Say Peter Orner, Annie Holmes, 2011-06-09 I am Elizabeth I wish I could use my real name because the situation in Zimbabwe is real It would be better for those back home to know it was me The situation in Zimbabwe represents one of the worst humanitarian emergencies today This book asks the question How did a country with so much promise a stellar education system a growing middle class a sophisticated economic infrastructure a liberal constitution an independent judiciary and many of the trappings of western democracy go so wrong It asks the people who know this complicated story best the Zimbabwean people who have endured and hoped across the decades to tell their side of this story From refugees in South Africa and Canada to those trying to continue living inside Zimbabwe from farms to rural Murambinda and the city of Harare in their own words they recount their experiences of losing their homes land livelihoods and families as a direct result of political violence They describe being tortured in detention firebombed at work beaten up or raped to punish votes for the opposition This book includes Zimbabweans of every age class and political conviction from farm labourers to academics doctors to artists opposition leaders to ordinary Zimbabweans men and women simply trying to survive as a once thriving nation heads for collapse I am Elizabeth I wish I could use my real name because the situation in Zimbabwe is real It would be better for those back home to know it was me
