Multicampus University Systems Ishmael I. Munene, 2014-08-27 In the face of increasing social demand and cutbacks in state budgetary support universities in African countries are now turning towards a multicampus system strategy As African governments have adopted neoliberal education policies that place premium on entrepreneurialism profit making privatization and markets as drivers of university development a reshaping of the academic work and organizational framework have taken place However little is known about the impact of this paradigm shift on access quality and governance in higher education This book fills the void in research and academic knowledge about the impact of the emerging university configurations in Africa It analyzes the paradox surrounding the performance of multicampus university systems as avenues of broadening university access but whose structural success may be qualitatively contested This book offers a refreshing examination of the African multicampus university system from both an African and global perspective It makes use of empirical data from Kenya collected during extensive fieldwork along with substantive library and documentary resources on the rest of the continents to fortify arguments and demonstrate important conclusions This allows for a comparative analysis of policies and strategies used in the establishment of campuses both within and beyond national boundaries in the continent and will be a welcome contribution to the existing repertoire on African universities Public & Private Universities in Kenya Kilemi Mwiria, Partnership for Higher Education in Africa, 2007 Reviews the history of higher education in Kenya and details the emergence of private universities most of them with a Christian religious orientation as major players in the provision of tertiary level education The African Virtual University Magdallen N. Juma, 2001 One of the most impressive innovations to have emerged as a means of helping to deal with crisis in higher education in Africa is the concept of a virtual university This case study relates to the pilot phase of the African Virtual University at Kenyatta University in Kenya Kenya National Assembly Official Record (Hansard), 1993-05-04 The official records of the proceedings of the Legislative Council of the Colony and Protectorate of Kenya the House of Representatives of the Government of Kenya and the National Assembly of the Republic of Kenya 10 Great Years of Progress (Kenya 1978-1988), 1988 Advancing Africa's Sustainable Development Alain L. Fymat, 2018-11-14 While many African countries lag behind the rest of the industrialised world in scientific and medical research and development the situation is progressively improving This is why the Society for the Advancement of Science in Africa was established to contribute to economic advancement and sustainability through science research education and innovation This book provides a selection of papers from the Advancement of Science in Africa s fourth annual conference The conference was held under the overarching theme of science technology and innovation in Africa with several important sub themes including but not limited to improving health research and disease surveillance education collaborating in research responding to epidemic diseases with high mortality in Africa and promoting women s interest in science careers The collection illustrates how although the chapter contributors come from various countries and universities representing their own academic research they all share a common interest in advancing science technology and innovation in Africa Thus Until Emilia Ilieva,Reuben Matheka,2025-08-04 Thus Until A History of Egerton University is a thorough historical chronological and well researched account of Egerton University from a whites only college when it started in 1939 through to the expansion it has experienced over the years culminating in being a full university More than any other university in Kenya Egerton has a long and colourful history but like all the other universities it has suffered from the political economic and financial challenges of the time especially since the double intake of the 1990s Chapter One provides the required background to the study highlighting agricultural and educational policies and steering away from the Happy Valley hype so characteristic of the period The reader will learn about the Egerton family in Chapter Two and particularly about Lord Egerton himself and the colonial circumstances within which he lived The chapter dispels some of the popularly held myths about him Chapter Three deals with the beginnings of the college and the various structural and curriculum experiments tried out and the kind of enrolment and students it experimented with as an all white establishment The chapter ends with Africans beginning to agitate for change With great attention to detail the later chapters put the university in a broader local and international context thereby increasing its relevance to society A History of Egerton University though heavily footnoted and with a detailed bibliography is written in a simple easy flowing and accessible style Kenya National Assembly Official Record

African Womanhood and the Feminist Agenda Musingafi, Maxwell Constantine Chando,Hungwe, Chipso,2024-01-16 Within academic circles there is a longstanding issue concerning the portrayal and understanding of African womanhood Frequently these narratives are crafted by outsiders predominantly Western scholars often distorting the lived experiences and unique perspectives of African women This has led to a skewed and sometimes negative perception of African women reinforcing stereotypes and sidelining their voices in critical discussions Moreover this misrepresentation has real world consequences as it impacts social justice initiatives and development projects that rely on misguided narratives rather than the authentic voices of African women African Womanhood and the Feminist Agenda emerges as an essential solution to the misrepresentation of African women This comprehensive and meticulously researched book offers an alternative narrative one that is rooted in African perspectives and experiences It addresses the historical cultural and political dimensions of African womanhood providing a rich and nuanced understanding of this multifaceted topic Kenya National Assembly Official Record (Hansard) ,2006-06-21 The official records of the proceedings of the Legislative Council of the Colony and Protectorate of Kenya the House of Representatives of the Government of Kenya and the National Assembly of the Republic of Kenya The Routledge Handbook of Tourism and Hospitality Education Dianne Dredge,David Airey,Michael J.

Gross,2014-10-03 Tourism is much more than an economic sector it is also a social cultural political and environmental force that drives societal change Understanding responding to and managing this change will inevitably require knowledge workers who are able to address a range of problems associated with tourism travel hospitality and the increasingly complex operating environment within which they exist The purpose of this Handbook is to provide an insightful and authoritative account of the various issues that are shaping the higher educational world of tourism hospitality and events education and to highlight the creative inventive and innovative ways that educators are responding to these issues It takes as its central focus a dynamic curriculum space shaped by internal and external factors from global to local scales a variety of values and perspectives contributed by a range of stakeholders and shifting philosophies about education policy pedagogy and teaching practice A benchmark for future curriculum design and development it critically reviews the development of conceptual and theoretical approaches to tourism and hospitality education The Handbook is composed of contributions from specialists in the field is interdisciplinary in coverage and international in scope through its authorship and content Providing a systematic guide to the current state of knowledge on tourism and hospitality education and its future direction this is essential reading for students researchers and academics in Tourism Hospitality Events Recreation and Leisure Studies My Footprints on the Sands of Time Bethwell A. Ogot,2003 While Allan Ogot s circuits of influence have been very wide and while he has participated in conferences and forums around the world he has never yielded his intellectual and personal anchorage in Kenya though he has had numerous opportunities to accept distinguished chairs overseas Extraordinarily Allan Ogot has sustained his incredible level of service and scholarship through shifting and challenging conditions within Kenya and within Africa navigating changing economic and political circumstances His steady hand and persistent commitment to the highest ideals of scholarly engagement and community provide remarkable model for all who are dedicating themselves and will dedicate themselves to Africanist scholarship This autobiography provides a commentary on the history of Kenya as seen through Allan Ogot s life experiences Regionalization of African Higher Education Jane Knight,Emnet Tadesse

Woldegiorgis,2017-04-17 Growth in the scope scale and importance of higher education regionalization should not be underestimated or ignored Africa like Asia Europe and Latin America is promoting deeper cooperation among higher education bodies and institutions across the continent and focusing more attention on Pan African and sub regional harmonization of policies and programmes This is the first book which brings together diverse scholars and policy experts to examine key aspects and challenges of African higher education regionalization Chapters examine the progress and prospects of core regionalization issues and strategies such as academic mobility quality assurance recognition of qualifications research centres and networks curriculum and competencies and regional academic programmes Other chapters discuss important themes such as the relationship between regionalization internationalization and Africanization historical antecedents and perspectives an analytical model to understand functional organizational and political approaches to Africa's higher education regionalization and the influence of the Bologna process on the African Union's Strategy for the Harmonization of Higher Education Programmes Together these chapters provide a comprehensive overview of efforts by the African Union sub regional higher education associations such as IUCEA SARUA and CAMES Pan African organizations and actors key research networks and centres of excellence and the involvement or dependence on external actors and funders especially from Europe Fundamentally the book asks the question whether higher education regionalization in Africa is more rhetoric than reality It discusses the progress to date on specific themes identifies historical political sustainability and funding challenges and concludes that while the impacts of regionalization efforts have not been fully realized there is cautious optimism for the future
