some reluctant Members and staff of both Houses and an often instinctively negative media to recognise the difference between democratic access to the work of the place and interest in its heritage and tourism aspects The central idea that has emerged in this inquiry is that two conceptions of Parliament are required the working institution and the visitor attraction The two should be complementary not in conflict and some of the tensions that presently arise from for example queues outside the building and the consequent delay of business meetings for Members and others would be resolved if the two concepts were more rigorously held apart
