HE'LL SAVE HER RANCH...
BUT WILL HE STEAL HER HEART?

A painting of a rural landscape. In the foreground, a wooden fence runs across the frame. Behind it is a green field with small red and yellow flowers. In the middle ground, a small, weathered wooden barn sits on a slight rise. The background shows rolling hills under a sky with soft, orange and pink clouds, suggesting a sunset or sunrise.

Makley, 2022-12-06 In the 1850s early Euro American settlers established two remote outposts on the slopes of the eastern Sierra Nevada both important way stations on the central emigrant trail The Carson Valley settlement was located on the western edge of the Utah Territory while the Honey

Lake Valley hamlet 120 miles north fell within California's boundaries but was separated from the rest of the state by the formidable mountain range. Although these were some of the first white communities established in the region, both areas had long been inhabited by Indigenous Americans. Carson Valley had been part of Washoe Indian territory and Honey Lake Valley was a section of Northern Paiute land. Michael Makley explores the complexities of this turbulent era when the pioneers' actions set the stage for both valleys to become part of national incorporation. With deft writing and meticulously researched portrayals of the individuals involved, including the Washoe and Northern Paiute peoples, Imposing Order Without Law focuses on the haphazard evolution of frontier justice in these remote outposts. White settlers often brought with them their own ideas of civil order. Makley's work contextualizes the extralegal acts undertaken by the settlers to enforce edicts in their attempt to establish American communities. Makley's book reveals the use and impact of group violence both within the settlements and within the Indigenous peoples' world where it transformed their lives.

Coast Calendar Robert Coffin, 2003-01-01 Coast Calendar says its Pulitzer Prize-winning author is the story of the work and play, the human nature and the weather, the fauna and flora, the ups and downs in a sample all-around Maine family that mixes farming of the sea with farming of the land. It is Robert P. Tristram Coffin's delightful chronicle of a year on the Maine coast. It is the world of coastal Maine, but it is a wider world too. Perhaps the deep frost and special swing of the stars and the sweep of the sea belong to Maine, but the fine day-to-day detail of living in tune with the seasons and nature will stir memories for many of a way of life that is rapidly passing. Robert P. Tristram Coffin was a descendant of the original English settlers of Maine and an acclaimed historian of his time. He was also a poet and essayist and was awarded the Pulitzer Prize for poetry in 1935. He attended Bowdoin College in Maine and later taught there while writing many of his thirty-seven books.
