II. Understanding Script Elements

In every script, certain elements are crucial for crafting a compelling narrative. Here's what you need to focus on:

- Characters: They are the heart of your story. Describe their personalities, habits, and relationships.
- Setting: This describes where and when your story takes place.
- Dialogue: These are the words your characters will speak. It's important to give each character a unique voice.
- Stage Directions: These instructions tell actors how to move or react in certain scenes and help the director visualize the action.

Remember, clarity in writing your elements means a clearer vision on stage or screen!
