Question 1

Type: MCSA

As a part of care planning, the nurse considers the client's spiritual needs. What is the rationale for this concern?

1. Nurses are the only health professionals who provide this type of holistic care.
2. Meeting the client's spiritual needs can decrease suffering.
3. Until spiritual needs are met, physical needs cannot be healed.
4. It is important that the nurse's idea of spirituality matches the client's ideas.

Correct Answer: 2

Rationale 1: Nurses do provide holistic care, but so do many other health care professionals.
