Mbah,2023-08-29 Negotiating Identities in Contemporary Africa Gender Religion and Ethno cultural Identities explores the changing dynamics of identities in Africa with a focus on gender ethno cultural and religious identity Toyin Falola and Emmanuel M Mbah argue that because identity defines who we are as individuals or groups studies on African identities must focus on understanding the changing dynamics in the socio economic and political spheres in the continent These chapters cover subjects such as women s career identity gender roles and knowledge childlessness ethnocentrism and democracy cultural identity through theater Black identity in the diaspora and diasporic consciousness Using existing scholarship the chapters in this edited volume challenge our understanding of what identity entails and provide new discussions on the hitherto politicized historiography of some identities in Africa Kenya Yearbook ,2019 Global Initiatives and Higher Education in the Fourth Industrial Revolution Erna Oliver,2022-11-08 The Fourth industrial Revolution 4IR is forcing higher education HE into a new era where it must either actively and positively contribute to innovation sustainability and development or become obsolete and redundant HE must leave its ivory tower and forge links and partnerships with society industry and governing bodies by delivering graduates that are holistically educated and trained to bring positive innovation and change and to address the challenges that humanity is facing in the 21st century Kenyan Public Universities in the Age of Internationalization Iddah Aoko Otieno,2018-06-20 This book presents a comprehensive institutional level analysis of a single public institution of higher education in the Republic of Kenya using the case study method of investigation It is the first case study to use both qualitative and quantitative research methodology to illuminate the experiences of Kenyan public universities with internationalization post independence Focusing on Kenya s oldest national public university the University of Nairobi's experimentation with internationalization Kenyan Public Universities in the Age of Internationalization is a first in the East African region The book argues that attempts by institutions of higher education in Africa to engage in internationalization with the much more older and well established IHEs in the developed world has perpetuated the colonial legacy that has relegated these institutions to the position of the Other in the new international order Several policy implications are offered on what it means to participate in internationalization from a marginal peripheral position The conventional assumption that political independence would bring to most African countries and by extension their national public universities a period of freedom from political economic and cultural subjugation and exploitation by the more powerful world nations has proved elusive This book is intended for a broad audience in the field of Comparative International Education The mixed research methods used in this book will certainly appeal to instructors students and general readers interested in understanding the experiences of historically marginalized developing World institutions of higher education with internationalization
