National Assembly,2000 Made in South Africa Lwando Xaso,2020-10-02 Like so many of her generation Lwando Xaso came of age alongside the beginnings and growth of South Africa s constitutional democracy Her journey into adulthood was a radically different one from that of earlier generations marked by hope that changing perceptions would usher in a new and free society Made in South Africa A Black Woman s Stories of Rage Resistance and Progress is a vibrant collection of essays in which Lwando examines with incisive clarity some of the events that have shaped her experience of South Africa a country with huge potential but weighed down by persistent racism and inequality cultural appropriation sexism and corruption all legacies of a complicated history As a young lawyer intent on climbing the corporate ladder Lwando s life s direction was changed by a personal experience of the oppressive capacity of a supposedly democratic government when it unjustly fired a close family friend and mentor from a senior government position She found herself on his legal team and the turmoil the case created within her led her to further her studies in constitutional law and to pick up her pen and share with a wider audience her views of what was happening in her beloved country Her outlook was further shaped by her experience of clerking at the Constitutional Court for Justice Edwin Cameron which deepened her respect for the South African Constitution and what it really means for a resilient people to strive continually to live up to its moral and legal standards Lwando s writing reflects her unflinching resolve to live according to the precepts of our groundbreaking Constitution and
